24 PERISH IN DISASTER CAUSED BY EXPLOSION

Workmen Are Trapped in Tunnel Five Miles From Shore of Lake and Beneath Surface

RESCUERS OVERCOME AND ARE KILLED

Men in Oxygen Helmets Succeed in Bringing Eight Bodies Out; Die in City Hospitals

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 25.—Twenty-four men are dead and at least half a dozen others are dying as the result of an explosion of gas in a water works tunnel five miles from shore underneath Lake Erie last night, according to a statement made by the police this morning. Rescuers working with oxygen helmets had at 10:15 o'clock brought eight bodies from the tunnel. No more have been found alive. The total number of bodies in the morgue now is ten. Three men rescued by relief parties have died in hospitals.

FUMES OVERPOWER.

Among the dead is Gustave C. Van Duzen, superintendent of water works construction, who was at the head of one of the relief parties.

The dead include workmen who were trapped in the tunnel when gas exploded and members of two rescue parties who attempted to save the first men trapped.

Of the dead, eleven were in the force trapped by the explosion. None of these escaped. The first rescue party consisted of seven men. Four of them perished and three were saved. The second rescue party comprised eleven men. Six of these lost their lives and five escaped. The first rescue party accomplished nothing. The second saved one of the first relief expedition.

CAUSE IN DOUBT.

Of the eight rescuers who got out alive two died later. The others may die. Two men who did not go into the tunnel, were also overcome by fumes.

A third rescue party entered the tunnel at 8:30 and brought out alive Gustave C. Van Duzen, superintendent of water works construction who had headed the second relief force. Van Duzen died later from his experiences. One body was also brought out by the third rescue party. This was a member of the second rescue crew.

The tragic fate of the rescuers in the first and second instances was due to the fact that they worked without oxygen helmets which were unavailable.

The third rescue party was equipped with helmets which had been assembled, but nearly eleven hours had elapsed following the explosion, before sufficient equipment to fit out the third rescue party was at hand to permit a descent into the tunnel.

The cause of the explosion has not yet been ascertained. It is supposed that some workman struck a pocket of gas with a pick or possibly gas collected in the tunnel and became ignited by an electric spark. The tunnel was equipped with electric.

Whip English, Urges Kaiser Soldiers Told Germany Diplomacy Victim

LONDON, July 25.—A despatch from Bern by way of Pontarlier, France, given out today by the Wireless Press, says:

"Another speech by Emperor William during his recent visit to the Somme front is being discussed in Berlin. The emperor said:

"Comrades: It is your especial privilege to fight against the English, who are means that you are fighting against a nation that has sworn to destroy Germany. The English built up during the years before the war the combination of our allies which at a given signal fell upon us, attacked us, the most peaceful and peace-desiring people in the world. The English led us to believe they were our friends when they were actually plotting our destruction."

DEUTSCHLAND IS STILL WAITING; MYSTERY GROWS

Submarine Ready to Set Sail, Still in Port; Tugs on Guard.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 25.—The stay or departure of the German submarine Deutschland may be determined tomorrow night in a conference here between promoters and German Ambassador von Bernstorff.

"Despite the mass of misinformation surrounding her venture, it leaked out today that Bernstorff Consul, Luderitz and others plan to meet here. Unless the Deutschland's sister ship, the Bremen, is reported safe in the meantime, the subject of their session, it is assumed, will be on the matter of either indefinitely postponing the Deutschland or making a bold dash for home, with chances with the allied patrol off the Cape."

The whereabouts of the Bremen begin to give some uneasiness, though she has not been out sufficiently long to make it certain that she has met with mishap.

If the Bremen has had trouble the Deutschland may decide to avoid it by an indefinite stay.

The Deutschland promoters stood ready to shoot out at a moment's notice. The Deutschland tug, Timmins had steam up; the path was clear. All that was necessary was for the Timmins to pull a switch and make a run.

Sam Bell Wakefield Faces Felony Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Dr. Sam Bell Wakefield of Oakland is accused of felony embezzlement of $8000 in a warrant issued today by Police Judge Brady on complaint of Patrick von Kueferling and his wife Paula. The complainants allege that they loaned the $8000 to Dr. Wakefield on a promissory note for $15,000 secured by what they believed was a first mortgage on certain real estate in the city of San Francisco. They alleged, that they did not have a first mortgage, but that there were previous liens on the property to the amount of $40,000.

Dr. Wakefield, a former rancher of St. Helena, moved here to educate his children and his attorney, Theodore Bell, says that the $8000 constituted his entire fortune.

Deny Alleged Villa Drive on Torreón

EL PASO, July 25.—An official denial of the report that a large Villa force was marching against Torreón was received today from General Alvaro Obregón, Minister of War, by Andrés García, local Mexican consul.

Consul García had informed Obregón that Villa's report was a bluff. The War Department at Washington, General Pershing, Obregón's reply substantiated previous reports from Chihuahua City. Newspapers from El Paso stated that General Obregón, a former military commander of the army of Northern Chihuahua, has been made inspector-general of the entire Constitutionalist army.

Claim Soldiers Who Left Ranks Shirked

SAN ANTONIO, July 25.—The First Illinois Brigade which yesterday on a turn-of-march left about a third of its members through soldiers dropping out for lifts in automobiles and ambulances, resumed its march to Leon Springs today. Regular army officers ascribe yesterday's desertion entirely to the so-called condition of the men. The fact that most of yesterday's stragglers were returned to the hospital here during the night convinced some army officers that most of them were shirkers rather than victims of heat and fatigue.

Citizens to Join in Chase for Bomb Fiend

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—President Frederick Koster of the Chamber of Commerce today organized the law and order committee of 100 that is to aid in the search for the author of the bomb outrage of Saturday. He told the committee men that they should work with the police, watching for any infraction of the law, and that they should report these immediately. A committee of 25 will go over the evidence in the bomb case and decide on possible action.

ALLY GAIN ADMITTED BY TEUTONS

British Take Town of Pozières After Fierce Fighting

Russians Penetrate Into Teuton Lines South of Berestecko

LONDON, July 25.—On nearly every front it appeared today from official statements of all belligerent nations that the Teutonic allies at some spot or another were compelled to give ground in the face of a general offensive movement.

No large gains were reported anywhere. It was apparent from the statements that on two stretches of about five miles each on the Flanders battlefield and the armies of the allies and the Teutonic forces were locked in bitter death grips. Berlin reported unsuccessful "resolute attacks" by the British around Pozières. General Haig detailed counter-attacks in the same sector, adding that the enemy had failed to reach his trenches. From all reports it is apparent the deadlock at Pozières, where each side holds half the town, is still continuing and presumably also the hand-to-hand fighting in the woods north of Longueval.

The second stretch where fighting is apparently of the most violent character lies between Freis and Soyecourt, where, judging from the French and German statements, a bitter artillery duel interspersed with infantry attacks is proceeding. It is in this sector that the Germans admit that the French have "temporarily" gained ground south of Elzees.

FULL ADMISSIONS.

Full admission in the German statement that General Sakharoff's Russian forces have penetrated the first German lines south of Berestecko confirmed previous Russian statements of the progress of the advancing movement around Brody, on the way to Lemberg. Petrograd claimed further gains by these same forces. It also reported additional gains by the Grand Duchesses in the Caucasus campaign against the Turks. The Italian statement of today claimed capture of Mount Cimone, highest peak in the Northern Apennines, which must have been an engineers' as well as a military feat.

BERLIN, July 25.—French assaults south of Metz "temporarily" gained ground, the war office statement said today, but resolute attacks by the allies around Pozières and Maurepas failed.

In the attempt by French troops around Estrees and Soyecourt the enemy suffered heavy losses, according to the statement. Except at the one point where they gained ground, however, their other attacks were dispersed.

Admission that the Russians had succeeded in penetrating the Teuton first lines south of Berestecko was war office report.

Repeated attempts to recapture positions around Froide Terre were repulsed, the statement said.

RUSS HELD: VIENNA.

Teutonic troops on the Southern Viennese front have made a successful stand against Russian attacks in the Berestecko sector, close to the Galician border, says an official statement issued by the Vienna war office under date of July 25. In East Galicia the approach of Russian detachments was frustrated by artillery, says the statement.

On the Italian front all enemy attacks have been repulsed, according to the statement, and Austrian squadrons bombed military establishments at San Giorgio, Dinogara, Gorgo and Montefalco.

The statement dealing with the eastern front says:

"Attacks by weak Russian detachments southeast of Riga and by Russian patrols on the Dvina were repulsed."

"Army group of General von Linsingen: Enemy attacks on the front south of Stonowoka and on the front south of Berestecko succeeded over a period of time in penetrating our first line defense."

"West of Burkanow, a Russian aeroplane was shot down in an aerial fight."

Official text of the German communication on operations in the western front says:

"North of the Somme, after the unsuccessful British attack of July 23, the French forces were repulsed. Yesterday, made a resolute attack on the Pozières-Maurepas front. It again broke down either through our fire or in some places after short hand-to-hand fighting."

TEMPORARY GAINS.

"East of Pozières, at Fourneaux Wood, near Longueval, and near Guillemont, the Brandenburg grenadiers and the gallant 104th Saxony regiment again defeated themselves."

"Simultaneously the French threw strong forces forward in a storming attack south of the Somme. In the Estrees-Soy Court Sector, which, however, had been previously gained ground south of Estrees. Otherwise the attack was dispersed with the most severe and sanguinary loss to the enemy."

"The Meuse region there were intense artillery duels from time to time. On the left bank of the river hand-to-hand engagements ensued."

"On the right bank, repeated enemy attempts to recapture positions on the Froide Terre ridge were repulsed."

"North of Balsewiller in Alsace our patrols brought back thirty prisoners from a French position."

"French biplane south of Dinerville, thereby putting his fourth enemy aircraft out of action."

BRITISH CLAIM POZIERES.

LONDON, July 25.—British troops have captured the greater part of the village of Pozières, says the British official statement issued this afternoon. The Germans brought up reinforcements of infantry and guns, and called for tonight to consider the inclusion of the child labor bill in this session's program.

ONE MORE SHIP YARD FOR CITY

S. F. Concern to Spend $400,000 on 14 Acres on Estuary

Two Monster Vessels Already Contracted for by Firm

The settlement today in San Francisco of the lumbermen's strike will mean the opening up of a new industrial plant on the Oakland estuary within the next six weeks. Fourteen acres of land on the Alameda shore from Grand to Chestnut street, leased by the J. D. Barnes Company, ship chandlers of San Francisco, will soon be the scene of busy activity in connection with the erection of a ship building plant.

The concern will expend at once $400,000 in the building of ways, mills, warehouses and machine shops, which at the start will give employment to more than 200 men. A contract has already been signed for the construction of two 4000 ton schooners for the San Francisco and Hong Kong Steamship Company at a cost of approximately $300,000 each. These will be built here, the keels being laid simultaneously with the receipt of the lumber for the construction of the ways by the end of next month. Only the strike, which has crippled the lumber trade, has prevented the delivery of the material for the building of the plant before this, as the order was given to the wholesaler two weeks ago.

J. J. Barnes, one of the members of the concern, in speaking of the business prospects, declared today that the expected new construction steamers as fast as he could turn them out.

"Not only have we already on hand the signed contracts for two 4000-ton vessels with auxiliary engines," explained Barnes, "but negotiations are under way for the signing of contracts for other construction work, and we are satisfied that before we have completed the two steamers under contract we will have to enlarge our plant to take care of the business offered us."

The J. D. Barnes Company has been in business in San Francisco for 16 years and to this time the firm had a ship-building plant in Boston.

Shoots Boy for Fear of Theft

Bullet Barely Misses Heart of Child

Shot through the left arm by Special Officer O. D. Arnold, employed as a watchman at the cannery of H. G. Prince & Co. at East Eleventh and Park streets, 12-year-old Theodore, son of 2715 East Eighth street, had a narrow escape from death this afternoon. Had the bullet gone an inch to the left, it would have penetrated the heart.

Theodore, in company with a number of other boys, was playing about the box cars, which were being unloaded on the side track at the cannery. Arnold appeared on the scene and thinking to frighten the lads, whom he suspected of stealing fruit, fired his .44 calibre revolver in their general direction. The bullet found a mark, however, in the fleshy part of Theodore's left arm, passing completely through and inflicting a slight wound on the chest.

Arnold was placed under arrest immediately after the shooting.

Aked Resigns as Head of Peace Move

DETROIT, Mich., July 25.—Dr. Charles F. Aked of San Francisco has resigned as chairman of the neutral peace conference in Stockholm, which was established as an outgrowth of the Russian peace conference here this afternoon following a long talk with Henry Ford, promulgator of the peace voyage and backer of the present conference. He gave as his only reason for withdrawing that he and Ford were unable to agree on a policy for the future guidance of the conference.

"I am through with the peace expedition entirely," the doctor said.

German Vessels Are Attacked in Sweden

BERLIN, July 25.—An attack on German merchant vessels by Russian destroyers alleged to have taken place within Swedish territory waters is reported by the Overseas News Agency in a statement today, which says: Two Russian destroyers attacked four German merchant steamers at the entrance to the port of Lulea, within Swedish waters. The Swedish torpedo boat Virgo steamed toward them and the Russian craft fled southward, pursued by the Virgo, which had made ready for action. The Swedish government has protested against this breach of neutrality.

Wilson to Insist on Child Labor Measure

WASHINGTON, July 25.—President Wilson let it be known today that he will insist on the adoption of the pending child labor and federal employees' compensation bills by Congress during the present session. A favorable report was filed in the House today on the compensation bill which has passed the House. A caucus of Democratic senators here called for tonight to consider the inclusion of the child labor bill in this session's program.

Death Claims One More Victim of Parade Bomb

BOMB VICTIM ROBBED OF GEMS

MRS. KINGSLEY VAN LOO, OAKLAND VICTIM OF BOMB PLOT, WHO WAS ROBBED OF JEWELS.

Thieves Steal Diamonds From Unconscious Wounded; Jewelry Torn Away

Mrs. Kingsley Van Loo, of 3840 Clark street, Oakland, who is in a dying condition at Adler's Sanitarium in San Francisco, was robbed of all of her valuables while she lay unconscious, a victim of Saturday's fatal bomb. A diamond solitaire ring, an Elk's pin set with diamonds and a gold wedding ring are all missing.

Mrs. Van Loo's gold watch was blown to pieces, a portion of it having been picked up by a block away. This was identified as her's today through the inscription, "Martha to Mother."

Mrs. Van Loo's skull is fractured and her right thigh mangled. Her two children, Marie and Richard, who were struck by flying fragments of metal, are both recovering in the same hospital. Her husband and her sister are in constant attendance at her side.

In the San Francisco hospital, Miss Pearl Seaman, 19 years old, of 613 Forty-fifth street, Oakland, is hovering between life and death. A second operation was performed yesterday in the effort to save her. One of her legs was amputated above the knee Sunday, and another amputation was performed yesterday.

In the Central Emergency Hospital, Thomas H. Turnbull, of 1650 California street, San Francisco, is suffering from a fracture of the skull. Attending physicians hold out but little hope for his recovery.

Others who were seriously injured, but who are expected to recover, are: Howard E. Knapp, 1448 Sixth avenue, Alameda, in Mt. Zion Hospital; Henry C. Clancy, 725 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, in St. Luke's Hospital; Mrs. Floyd C. Wynore, of 1238 Forty-third avenue, Oakland, in Fabiola Hospital.

SOLDIERS SHOT BY GUARDS IN RIOT IN TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 25.—Three negro soldiers of Company E, Eighth Illinois Infantry, were in the hospital today as the result of bullet wounds received when they fired upon the "provost guards" last night after an attack on H. G. Henne, a lawyer of New Braunfels, Texas. A fourth was taken to his tent.

The wounded are: William Blue, shot in the groin; Edward Lightborn, flesh wound in the right thigh; Sidney Williams, left leg broken below the knee; unidentified trooper removed to the regimental camp.

All are privates. The wounds are comparatively slight, owing to the guard having used "guard" ammunition, a light charge with a maximum range of about 500 yards.

The trouble started when Henne was driving his automobile past a group of the negro militiamen. Henne says a stone was thrown, striking the back of the car. He stopped and went back to ascertain who threw the stone. He said he was met with threats and invective. He ran toward a nearby saloon followed by the militiamen.

By the time Henne reached the saloon his pursuers are said to have numbered thirty or forty. He seized a tobacco cutter and knocked down the first negro through the door, he says. A second he kicked in the groin. At this juncture the provost guard, composed of nineteen United States infantrymen, arrived. With clubbed guns they forced the negroes into the street.

The negroes are said to have made a stand there, after withdrawing some distance from the saloon. Upon their

ENGLAND HALTS FUND FOR IRELAND AND S.S. M'CLURE

LONDON, July 25.—S. S. McClure, the American publisher, was detained on board the American liner Philadelphia when the vessel arrived at Liverpool yesterday, but was released this afternoon on representation to the British authorities by the American Embassy.

British authorities also refused permission to Thomas Kelly and his wife and Joseph Smith, all Americans, to land from the American liner Philadelphia here early today.

Kelly wired Ambassador Page in London that he was bringing $50,000 to Ireland as treasurer of the Irish Relief Fund of America, but when Ambassador Page sought to interfere with the home office to permit Kelly's landing, his request was politely refused.

MURDERER LOCATED.

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 25.—Jose Valenzuela, charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, has been located on the ranch Del Doz Adolmo, fifty miles northwest of Casas Grandes, Mex. This report reached here early today from a reliable source. The Parkers were killed six weeks ago on the Double Adobe ranch near Hachita, N. M.

Failure to obey repeated orders to return to their quarters, they were fired upon by the guard. Four of them fell and the remainder retreated.

Officials of the Southern Department are investigating, preparatory to a courtmartial.

CAP. VAUGHN SUCCUMBS TO INJURES; 7 IS TOLL

City Recovers From Its Shock and Turns to Task of Capturing Culprit, Who Did Deed

MAYOR AND POLICE DETAIL CONSULT

Statewide Net Is Spread to Apprehend Suspect While Large Reward Is Offered for Clues

Death has relieved the sufferings of one more victim of the deadly bomb that killed and maimed spectators of the preparedness parade in San Francisco on Saturday. Captain Rouben J. Vaughn, master mariner, died this morning in the Marine hospital from the effects of the terrible injuries which he received in a way now and four small children are left to mourn his loss in the little home at 2917 Lorena street, Berkeley. This swells the list of victims to seven, including Adam Fox, the aged veteran who had fainted from an attack of heart failure shortly before the explosion and whose death is believed to have been hastened by shock.

The grand jury met at noon with District Attorney Charles F. Smith and voted to hold a meeting tomorrow night, when the investigation into Saturday's bomb outrage will be formally begun. Fickert, in brief, explained the duty of the grand jury to look into the situation and the law body will form the pivot of the inquiry so far as the district attorney's office is concerned.

Mayor James Rolph in a visit to police headquarters this afternoon conferred with Captain Matheson, evidently on a matter of some importance connected with the investigation. He declined to indicate the nature of the information he had imparted.

Several local attorneys today took occasion to advise the police of the provisions of the law which makes it possible to sue under the Federal statute all foreign anarchists who may be in this country. Whether or not wholesale arrests will be made has not been decided.

Witnesses totaling $14,100 offered for the arrest and conviction of the criminals, the hunt is on earnest in every nook and corner of the state. The police alone are not the active agents, for the matter, the supervisors, the state, the United States district, the postoffice officials, civic organizations and private citizens have entered eagerly into the task of ferreting out the perpetrators of the most dastardly crime in the history of the city.

Hopes entertained by the local police that Osmond Jacobs, an alleged I. W. W. member, who was arrested in Fresno last night, would prove to be a member of the group responsible for the outrage were disappointed today when Chief of Police Goehring of the southern city released the suspect after a careful examination. Jacobs proved an alibi through several witnesses, who asserted that he was not in San Francisco last week.

Jacobs was arrested last night because a bystander heard him comment on the explosion, saying "It was a good job. He had a fresh wound on his face, which, physicians said might have been caused by a burn. He explained the wound today by stating that he fell against a box-car in the Fresno yards."

The offer of Mayor James Rolph for $5000 on the part of the city stands unchanged, although the supervisors have found that they cannot legally offer more than $100. They have voted that amount as a reward and the mayor will be responsible for the other $4000. The Chamber of Commerce yesterday offered a reward of $5000 and Governor John Johnson added $1000 from the state fund for the apprehension of criminals.

LAMBORN OFFERS $1000.

Ben F. Lamborn of Alameda brother of Lea H. Lamborn, who was killed in the explosion, had offered $1000, and R. W. Kinney, a dealer in plumbing goods at 588 Howard street, a personal friend of Dr. George L. Painter, another victim, has contributed $1000 to the fund. The Board of Supervisors of Alameda county yesterday voted $1000, contingent upon the opinion of the district attorney as to the legality of the action. Natall Ferragrand, of 847 Union street, added $100 to the reward.

Services of detectives free of charge have been offered by the W. A. Muddell International Detective Agency, through President W. A. Muddell.

CROOK, MUCH SOUGHT, IS TAKEN HERE

'Tattooed Apache' From Paris, Caught After Hard Chase

Frenchman's Woman Victim Released in Resort Raid

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Tracked across the United States by secret service operatives, who lost all trace of him in New York, Charles H. Hesson, known as "the tattooed Apache," and said to be a criminal known to every police bureau on the continent of Europe, was captured in San Francisco today. Rescued from his cell at the same time was Bertha Samsot, a pretty French peasant girl, 21 years old, who went through a marriage ceremony with Hesson at Bordeaux after she had been left alone and penniless through the death of her father, her only relative, in the trenches at Verdun. It was while grieving over her father's death that the girl met Hesson in Paris. They were married after a short acquaintance. On June 30 they sailed on the steamer Ronchambeau for the United States.

IT HAPPENED FIFTEEN YEARS. It happened, however, that Hesson had been released only a short time previously after serving fifteen years in the penitentiary for robbery and murder, and the Paris police had been keeping a close watch on his movements. The United States authorities were notified and Secret Service Operatives William R. Bryon and Harold H. Dolley were waiting when the vessel docked at New York. In some manner Hesson and his bride eluded them and succeeded in leaving the metropolis. The officers finally got to the end of the trail and followed their footsteps, finally pursuing them across the continent to this city.

S. F. POLICE ON TRAIL. Again the trail was lost and the police were appealed to. Detective Thomas Farnum of the white slave bureau and the Immigration authorities were appealed to, the assumption being that Hesson had brought the girl to this country to sell her into slavery in the tenderloin. With Immigration Inspector Robinson, Farnum made a search of the disorderly houses adjacent to the Barbary Coast and early this morning located the girl in a rooming house. Farnum was followed and a raid on the rooming house, in which Farnum, Robinson, Bryon and Dolley participated, resulted in Hesson's capture.

The officers entered the room armed and with their revolvers leveled, as they had been told that Hesson was a desperate character and would fight for his liberty. He was locked up and will be turned over to the federal authorities. The penalty for his alleged crime—the placing of a woman in an improper resort and bringing her to this country for immoral purposes—is ten years in the federal penitentiary.

Miss Samsot is under the care of the matron at the city prison.

Chicago 'Dry' Zone Goes 'Wet'

CHICAGO, July 25.—"Swail Beer Sold Here. Two Glasses for a Nickel."

This was the sign on the stand of Willie Rock, aged 3, who quit the lemonade business because it was too slow. Willie did a rushing business.

A workman across the street had spied the sign and didn't believe he had read correctly, for he knew he was in the Chicago's dryest zones. Prohibition absolutely. He bought a glass and then told the rest of the workers about the oasis. There was a rush and Willie finally took down the sign and went home to show Grandma Rock the 60 cents he had made selling his dozen bottles of beer, which cost him $1.20.

Grandma revoked Willie's license right away.

POSTUM

This famous food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses. It has a flavor much like that of the higher grades of mild Java coffee, but is absolutely free from the drug, caffeine, in coffee, or any other harmful substance—free from all coffee troubles.

Postum is delicious and comes in two forms. The original Postum Cereal must be boiled. Instant Postum is a soluble powder—made in the cup by adding hot water. The flavor is the same and the cost about equal. Both kinds are good for young and old, and satisfy the craving for a hot, aromatic, meal-time beverage.

who declared that he would not even allow his share in the rewards if they succeeded in finding the criminals.

Henry M. Moffitt, chief of the United States secret service, arrived here today from Skaggs Springs to lend his aid in the work. He is said to have the most complete line of information on the various radical groups that have been active in this region. United States District Attorney John W. Preston and Chief Postal Inspector Stephen H. Morse are busy trying to trace the origin of a score of threatening postcards received during the last few weeks by persons active in the preparation for the preparedness parade.

CORONER'S JURY. The coroner's jury, which will hold an inquest on Saturday or Monday as soon as Coroner Leland returns, was impaneled yesterday by Chief Deputy Coroner Joseph Kelly. Those selected for this important duty are:

William Breslin, 641 Oak street; salesman for Arnstein-Simon Company.

A. R. Pennington, vice-president of the California Optical Company, 1824 Lake street.

Angelo J. Rossi, 2466 Union street, president of Pellicano & Rossi.

C. J. Keyser, 1103 Dolores street, vice-president of McMahon & Keyser.

Gus Lane, 1864 Pacific avenue, of the Rosenthal Shoe Company.

D. C. Davis, Los Gatos; president of the Davis Shoe Company.

Charles Stierger, president of Stiegeler Brothers, tailors.

Edward Pinher, 1660 Sacramento street; with the George A. Moss Glove Company.

Charles Cohen, Los Altos; with a Keystone Jewelry Company.

A. J. Hildebrandt, 49 Harlow street; assistant manager of the Royal Shoe Company.

Marisch, 20 Stanyan street, with Marisch & Landis.

Joseph S. Lewis, 148 Central avenue; president of Lewis & Co., Jewelers.

Under Captain Duncan Matheson, the newly organized sub-bureau of police detectives has entered upon a systematic investigation of every phase of the crime and its surroundings, including a study of every radical group of agitators that exists in this city or the neighboring territory. The police department has had to admit that it was unprepared with the knowledge of the activities of the anarchists and other rebels.

Chief of Police White today issued the following order to company commanders:

"You are directed to make an immediate report, giving the places where meetings are or have been held by I. W. W.'s, Socialists, Anarchists, or nihilists, giving the exact location or time of meetings, also whether or not meetings have been discontinued since the bomb outrage on Saturday."

"Also have collected all inflammatory literature distributed before the parade, finding out where published and who were responsible for its distribution. Forward such reports to this office as soon as possible."

Chief White complains that he has had neither men nor means to keep tabs on the I. W. W. groups, the anarchists and other agitators. No attention at all had been paid, he says, to the Mexican Revolutionary groups. The chief has appealed to the federal government to investigate the doings of the radical groups in that city, with a view to discovering whether the local plot was hatched in that city.

Chief White declares, however, that he believes the crime was conceived here, basing his belief on the fact that no attempts of violence were made upon preparedness parades in other cities. He also believes that the outrage was planned and executed by a group rather than by an individual.

"When a single crazed individual evolves and carries out a plan like that," said the chief, "he always wants to get the credit and glory out of it. Even if he has to blow himself up along with his victims he wants himself known as the doer of the deed. That is the psychology of almost every isolated bomb thrower."

"But in this case the criminal made no attempt to make himself spectacular. That points to a group of plotters, scheming for destruction for other reasons and not for a blaze of glory for themselves."

NOT FOR PARADE. The initial theory that the bomb was planned for the reviewing stand, or for some particular section of the parade, has been shaken by the testimony of witnesses that the suitcase was placed in position three-quarters of an hour before the explosion. The force of the investigation is now directed toward finding witnesses who saw the suitcase deposited on the sidewalk.

William Taylor, a peddler, more than 80 years old, is the only person who discovered who can give a description of the man who set the bag down on the sidewalk. Taylor told the police that between 1 and 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon, as he sat on the edge of a hatchway opening into the basement of the saloon building at Steuart and Market streets, about eight feet from the spot where the bomb exploded, he saw a man get the suitcase down.

Taylor remarked to the man that he had chosen a poor place to leave his bag if he wanted to set it again. "It is my affair where I leave it," the man mumbled in reply. "You let it alone and it will be all right." He disappeared immediately in the crowd.

The peddler described the man as about 40 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, blonde with a mustache, and wearing a cloth hat pulled down over his eyes.

Early this morning Handwriting Expert Karl-Bismerschmuel of Berkeley reported to the leaders that the postal cards received by Manager James Woods of the St. Francis and the head waiter of that hostelry were written by the same hand that composed the letters from the newspapers warning them of the bomb throwing which would be an accomplishment to the preparedness parade.

HANDWRITING SAME. "There is no question but that the handwriting is identical," said Bismerschmuel. "Moreover, there is no attempt at a disguise. The man wrote all of the specimens. He was evidently a man of intellect and education. I believe there can be no doubt of that. These letters and postals furnish a wonderful exhibit and may lead to the capture of the gang."

Matheson, anxious to obtain more data on the movements of anarchists, and it possible to get his hands on the letters of the leaders and agitators among the "Reds" all over the country, today sent telegrams to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Washington and other cities, asking for information on bomb outrages have occurred, and where suspects have been taken into custody. Requests for photographs and all information have been wired.

Following the man arrested, Sergeant Brasfield on Saturday afternoon, and subsequently charged with disturbing the peace, was released to the custody of his family. He gave it as his opinion that the man was innocent of any connection with the crime.

Michael Asemos, taken into custody yesterday, was put through a sweating process by three detectives during the morning.

Captain Henry Gleason of the Central Station assembled the day platoon this morning and instructed each of them to talk as much as possible with citizens, discussing the bomb outrage and endeavor to gather even the slightest shreds of information.

Though the remark on the part of some citizen may be the clue which will lead to the capture we so much desire," concluded Captain Gleason, the police all over the city today began a canvass of the second-hand stores and pawn shops seeking information regarding the sale of suitcases or the appearance there of supposed anarchists.

OLEW OFFERED. A clew, which is considered by the police to be particularly important, and which was furnished by two separate individuals today, lends to the belief that two roughly dressed men who boarded a California-street car at 12:45 p. m. Saturday may have carried in a single suitcase the infernal machine later to cause such great havoc.

By a peculiar coincidence the report from two separate sources came to headquarters within the same hour this morning. Samuel Weeks, conductor of the car, was the first to report. He stated that two roughly dressed men carrying a heavy suitcase boarded his car at Kearny street and talked rapidly and continuously in a foreign language. They seemed a bit excited and they rode to the end of the line, Market and Drumm streets. The terminus is scarcely more than 150 feet from the scene of the explosion.

Weeks was attracted to them by reason of the fact that it is an unusual occurrence for poor men of the laboring class to take a car for a

CASTLE ASKS McDEVITT'S DISMISSAL

Alleged Statements for Anti-Preparedness Quoted

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Denouncing William McDevitt, election commissioner under the present municipal administration, as a man who has no right to hold office and at the same time speak at anti-preparedness meetings where inflammatory and radical statements were made, Colonel Albert E. Castle declared at the luncheon of the Commercial Club yesterday that popular sentiment should demand his instant removal. Although five days have elapsed since McDevitt is said to have told an audience that participants in a preparedness parade ought to be shot, said Castle, he is still a public official. Colonel Castle said in part:

"The crime committed on Saturday last is directly traceable to the anti-preparedness meeting of the previous Thursday. Now, there are a good many men and women who went there and honestly believed in peace at any price, but there were many who expected to hear talk of murder and anarchy, and they were not disappointed. I am going to take up a few moments of your time this afternoon in reading extracts from a few of the speeches delivered there."

QUOTES REMARKS. Rudolph Spreckels, one of our leading bankers, was selected to read the first, and here are a few of his remarks:

"Who is it that has organized this parade and will march in it on Saturday? Why, the public service corporations, who have snuffed up the wind and deceived our community, and who now stand sponsor for and claim to represent patriotism. They ought to apologize for making such a claim. There are men who will wave the flag on our streets on Saturday who should hide themselves in shame because they have brought disgrace on the flag."

"I am not here to represent the capitalist class. I haven't been asked to speak for them. I am here to raise my voice with those who believe that humanity has rights that are paramount to all others. If I had one dirty dollar I would be with them. I think that you will realize that with the exception of this community against me—some of them having been prosecuted through my own efforts."

McDEVITT SPEAKS. "Does your committee of preparedness who advocates reform of our government? No. They don't care how much money is expended, as long as they know they'll get some of it."

William McDevitt, an election commissioner of San Francisco, took office under the present city administration, was the next speaker. I am informed that what McDevitt said is this:

"Every merchant any every banker who participated in the Preparedness parade should be shot and that the people who shoot them should go home and tell their families that they had accomplished a good day's work."

GIVES OWN STATEMENT. Now, it may be possible he did not make the exact remarks that were reported to me, but here is his own statement of what he said:

"If I were in an heroic mood, like Roosevelt, I might advise my men to shoot in the back of the neck, or some other spot in the back, every representative of a corrupt munition maker or corporation in the parade."

Speaking of national flags, McDevitt declared he was in favor of "every national flag being given up and of all nations using one flag." He paused, and after a round of hiccups, he described the one flag as "the flag that is the color of the heart's blood," accompanied the words with a gesture of his right hand to his heart.

This man is an officer of the inefficient city government, and he is, five days after he uttered those sentiments, still an officer of this city."

DR. NIXON ALSO. The next speech, I am ashamed to say, was made by a minister of my own faith, Dr. Nixon:

"But next Saturday out will walk the great fat-bellied baker, in august Episcopal grandeur, holding his hand on his stomach, for some other part of his anatomy, to make sure that he's safe. Behind him will march a man in a stove-pipe hat, perhaps left over from the Exposition."

"They'll pretend that they are fighting for the spirit of '76. They're not. They're fighting to hold what they've got and perhaps to get more."

Side of six short blocks, especially as the car does not go directly to the ferry. He describes his passengers as follows:

Number one—Five feet 10, 160 pounds, 35 years old, dark, smooth shaven, dressed in rough blue suit, soft white shirt, bow collar, black hat. Number two—Five feet 6, 145 pounds, smooth shaven, dark gray coat, soft white shirt, dark green cap, aged 35 years.

Weeks particularly noticed a heavy suitcase, which was carried with great care.

Jack Clifton, cigar dealer at California and Kearny streets, reported the peculiar actions of the same two men. He said they talked excitedly and looked in front of his place for several moments before boarding the car. He describes them in the same manner as Weeks.

The police will cause circulars to be printed bearing descriptions of the pair.

ally driven machinery for excavating.

First intimation of the disaster came when William J. Dolan, lock-tender in the air chamber at the entrance to the tunnel, heard the dull boom of an explosion. This was about 9:30 p. m. Superintendent John Johnson summoned volunteers and led the first rescue party of volunteers down the elevator and into the tunnel. One hundred and fifty feet from the bottom of the shaft they began to stumble, crumple and fall, overcome by fumes. Dolan, who had resumed his position in the air chamber, rushed after them. He saw a flash of light in the darkness. It proved to be Johnson's flashlight which he still grasped where he had fallen. Dolan dragged him to the bottom of the elevator shaft and went back. Almost dead himself he dragged Peter McKenna to safety. Then he collapsed. Others from the crib took the three up the elevator and they were placed aboard boats which had been attracted from shore by rockets.

It was two hours later that Van Duzen, who had been summoned from his home by telegraph, organized the second rescue party on shore and went to

BOMB VICTIMS' FUNERALS HELD

Alameda County Residents, Killed by Explosion, Laid to Rest.

Funeral services for three of the victims of the bomb explosion were held today in Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco.

Private services with the ritual of the Episcopal church were held this afternoon for Dr. George L. Painter at the family residence, 3305 Telegraph avenue, Berkeley. His informant was in Mountain View cemetery. Only the immediate members of the family were present.

Dr. Painter had lived in Berkeley for six years. He was graduated from the college of sciences in the University of California with the class of 1896 and from the medical college in 1896. He served four years in the Philippine Islands with the First California Volunteers, returning with the rank of captain. He was an acknowledged leader among the X-ray specialists of the West.

Dr. Painter had been married twice, his first wife having died in 1904. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Schenck Painter, a 4-year-old daughter, Mary Elizabeth, and a sister, Mrs. James H. Wright of 3020 Telegraph avenue.

The body of Lea Harvey Lamborn of 151 St. Charles street, Alameda, was buried this afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Smiley & Gallagher, 2325 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda. Only immediate relatives were in attendance at the service.

Service for George Garretson Lawlor, 3006 Van Buren avenue, Alameda, were held this afternoon in Gray's chapel, Geary and Divisadero street, San Francisco.

The funeral of Arthur A. Nelson will take place tomorrow afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church, Fifteenth and Dolores streets, San Francisco, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Nelson is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Nelson of Lakeside; a brother, Clarence A. Nelson, and three sisters, Edna J. and Eva Nelson, and Mrs. George W. Collins of Alameda. The date for the funeral of Mrs. Helga D. Knapp, 1436 Sixth avenue, Alameda, has not yet been set, pending the crisis in the condition of her husband, Howard S. Knapp, who was seriously injured in the event that he succumbed to his injuries. It is the intention of the family to bury husband and wife at the same time.

REMAINS OF RILEY PLACED IN VAULT

INDIANAPOLIS, July 25.—The funeral of James Whitcomb Riley, the Indiana poet, was held at his home on Lockberle street today. The simple services were attended by relatives and a few intimate friends.

The funeral was private, but the placing of the body in a vault in Crown Hill cemetery here was public. Large crowds assembled near the vault.

The body was placed in the vault pending arrangements for its final disposition. The vault was decorated with flowers of brilliant colors which the poet liked best. Beautiful rugs were spread on the floor. A short prayer at the cemetery concluded the services.

CHICAGO HEAT IS BROKEN BY STORM

CHICAGO, July 25.—After the hottest day in six years, temporary relief was given Chicago today by a thunderstorm, accompanied by a heavy fall of rain. Today, however, dawned hot, with a high degree of humidity. Yesterday's toll of five heat victims in the Chicago district brought the total loss of life from the direct result of the present torrid spell to nineteen. The government thermometer reached 93 yesterday at Chicago, while temperatures of 100 up were not uncommon in the south-west.

It was estimated today that present heat wave has lasted, directly or indirectly, a toll of 200 lives.

DETROIT, Mich., July 25.—Detroit's heat death toll for fourteen days reached thirty-one today. While the 80 degree mark again today the weather had appeared his usual "to be continued" to his daily trial about the atmospheric conditions.

U.S. May Probe Into Explosion

United States District Attorney John W. Preston has notified the local authorities that his department is ready to co-operate with the police to the fullest extent, if it can be shown that improper use has been made of the mails or that the explosive was transported in violation of the interstate commerce laws.

"An anarchist is not a criminal of his belief," said Preston, "and he is entitled to the same protection as any other individual at the hands of the law. The fact that he is an anarchist is nothing against him in the eyes of the law until he is proven guilty of a specific crime."

"If authorities find certain threatening letters and postals were sent through the mails, this may give us jurisdiction to take part in the investigation. We have at yet been asked to take a hand."

BLACKLIST COMMITTEE SEEKS AID

England's Statement of Justification Called Absurd
Vigorous Action by U. S. Government May Result

NEW YORK, July 25.—The committee of protest formed by fifty or more New York firms and individuals on the British trade blacklist widened its scope today and sought aid from merchants and bankers throughout the country. It was announced that fifty letters and telegrams offering support in the movement against the enforcement of the blacklist have been received from prominent persons in other parts of the country.

The local committee has organized by selecting as its chairman Leopold Zimmerman of the banking house of Zimmerman, Brown and Forney. In a statement made public today Maurice B. Blumenthal, counsel for the organization said:

"We are making haste slowly because the great importance and far effect of the controversy between the two countries require that the American side be presented deliberately and without excitement or clamor."

"In attempting to justify its conduct England has declared through its chief department of Foreign Trade, as follows: 'The test applied in putting a firm on the blacklist in America on the statutory list is this: Is that firm by its business operations strengthening our enemies? If so then British firms may not support it.'"

UNLAWFUL ATTITUDE.

"This test reflects an attitude, that is (1) unlawful, (2) inconsistent, and (3) absurd; it is unlawful because in direct conflict with those provisions of international law which recognize the right of neutral nations to trade with any belligerent power; it is inconsistent in view of the fact that during the last fiscal year England has carried on trade relations with citizens of the United States reaching the billion dollar mark, whereby she, England, certainly has been 'strengthened' and it is fair to us as neutral citizens voluntarily to deal with England and thus 'strengthen' her, how can England say that we are to be ex-communicated from the realm of commerce if we voluntarily deal with England's adversaries, thereby 'strengthening' them."

AWAIT EXPLANATION.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Protection of American houses named in a commercial blacklist prepared by Great Britain is looked for in vigorous action by the United States. Early steps may be taken, it was indicated today, unless satisfactory explanations come from London in reply to informal inquiries by American Ambassador E. F. Mott. President Wilson has let it be known that he is deeply concerned.

Officials see complications in the reported intention of the allies to take concerted action along the lines of the British trading with the enemy act. That would increase difficulties in the business concerns and would extend diplomatic interchanges. The State Department already has gathered a mass of information regarding the blacklist for use in whatever action it may take.

ALASKAN TRADE FIGURE DOUBLES

Copper Exports, Salmon and Other Products Are on List.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Alaskan sales to the United States in the last fiscal year aggregated $50,000,000, double the annual average since 1912. The chief feature of the year, according to an analysis by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce was the rise of copper to first place among Alaska's exports, supplanting salmon and gold.

Copper exports aggregated 117,000,000 pounds valued at $35,500,000. This is four times the average for the three preceding years and exceeds the combined copper imports of the United States from Chile, Cuba, Canada and Mexico, the leading foreign sources of supply.

Canned salmon exports amounted to 216,000,000 pounds, valued at $18,838,000. Gold shipped to the United States amounted to $16,200,000 or $1,000,000,000 more than the total for 1915.

but the counter-attacks everywhere, the statement adds, were repulsed by the British.

The British thrust was a hurrying forward of an inferno of flame, steel and shot along a five-mile front from Thiepval to Longueval. At only three points in this stretch was there contact of men—at Delville, High woods and Pozieres. The last named village, which is divided by the main highway from Albert to Bapaume, itself housed British and Germans. Ever since Sunday morning the two forces have grappled hand to hand in desperate combat.

The wide street which stretches out in the town's suburbs to join the Bapaume highway was no man's land. It was swept by a rain of machine gun bullets from both sides. Now and then the deluge stopped momentarily as forces from one side or the other charged. Then it was bayonet to bayonet. At last reports it seemed that the Anzacs—sturdy British colonials tested in the blazing heat of Gallipoli—were slowly but surely wresting an advantage.

STRUGGLES IN FOREST.

None the less desperate were the struggles for supremacy in the two spare forests at Delville and High woods. The forests themselves were gone. Of the leafy foliage nothing remained. Shot and shell and hand-grenades had stripped the trees into gaunt fire-blackened poles or laid them low on the ground in inextricable confusion. Behind these barriers of logs the Germans and British fought fiercely.

There was no diminution in the artillery fire which General Haig has now been pouring ceaselessly into the German lines since Friday. On the other hand, the Germans pounded away with explosive shells, gas shells, shrapnel and machine gun fire.

PARIS, July 25.—On the south bank of the river Somme, yesterday evening, French troops captured a block of houses south of Estrees and drove the Germans out of trenches north of Arras, says the French official statement issued this afternoon. The statement says:

PATROLS DISPERSED.

"Between the Oise and the Aisne several German patrols were dispersed near Tracy-L-Val."

"On the left bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun region, there was grenade fighting at Hill 304."

"In the right bank of the Meuse a violent cannonading was in progress at Flunoy and LaLafite."

"A German attack on the French position at Baschwiller, in Alsace, is claimed to have failed."

"Of the heavy fighting nothing was heard. The French aviation corps brought down his tenth airship."

Lime in Camp? No; Flies Like It! Army Men Seek Sanitary Substitute

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., July 25.—Goodbye to the good old style of lime-whitened army camps.

The use of lime was stopped in all camps this morning by orders which Major Blapham, sanitary inspector for the army of the Lower Rio Grande, issued Monday night.

"We've discovered that flies like white color," said the major. "What we are looking for is something black in the way of a disinfectant. The latest idea is lampblack mixed with petroleum."

At the request of Major Blapham, I accompanied him on a trip of inspection, covering in part some ground gone over by General Bliss a week ago.

"We want Americans to know the exact health and sanitary conditions here," said Blapham. "Many wild stories are being sent out about illness among the men. All are untrue."

"The sanitary department of the American army can promise the American people that there is no repetition of the horrors of 1915. We are ready for anything. Relatives of the soldiers back home may rest easy and not worry."

The correspondent saw many unrepainted kitchens in the Virginia and Illinois regiments.

"We can't have screens until we get wooden kitchens," said Blapham. "There is no lumber here, but it is being rushed on cars attached to fast passenger trains."

"Look here," Blapham pointed to a ditch in the Virginia camp. "Doesn't that prove lime is useless? Look at the flies feeding in the lime-whitened ditch. Flies are the best sanitary inspectors in the world. They always find filth and they are proving to us now that lime doesn't disinfect. The idea of many incoming guard companies are very old fashioned in regard to sanitation."

In proof of this, Blapham drove his car to the camp where the First Iowa had just arrived. "Thousands of huge youths were cutting down cactus and greasewood to the music of a giant chorus of Texas locusts driven from their homes in the falling trees."

"What are you doing there?" asked the major of a sergeant who was superintending the digging of a hole near the camp kitchen.

"Digging a cesspool," replied the sergeant.

"Please discontinue that work and bring the medical officer here," said Blapham.

Major W. S. Conklin of Des Moines answered.

"No cesspools, please," directed Blapham. "Build incinerators and burn the refuse."

It developed later that many officers in the Iowa regiment had been in the Spanish-American war during which cesspools killed thousands.

"No reflection on the Iowans," said Blapham. "The militia is all the same. They don't know the latest developments in sanitation and we must keep constant vigil. The health of the men is excellent."

ELECTROLIERS FOR HAYWARD, PLAN

Chamber of Commerce Would Install New Lighting System.

HAYWARD, July 25.—A new lighting system of electroliers in place of the present overhead lighting will probably be installed in this city, following an investigation of the street lighting in other cities by a committee of the Hayward Chamber of Commerce. It is claimed that the present overhead lighting is inadequate.

"We believe it will be possible to install electroliers throughout town at a reasonable cost—much lower in fact than that of several other cities where electroliers are used," said Martin J. Madison, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who together with other members of the chamber visited Livermore and other towns where there are electroliers. "If we installed the same electrolier system in that of Livermore it would probably cost this city $400 a month and the cost of installation would be $12,000," continued Madison. "We are, however, figuring out a method whereby the electrolier lighting will cost not more than $20 a month. We hope to reduce the cost from $20 a fifty-foot lot—that of other cities—to $10. The overhead system costs the town about $150 a month."

Dies With Arm Around Woman He Loved and Killed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 25.—Enraged because his bride had left him and gone to live at the Y. W. C. His case was set for trial on September 4th.

PINKERTON LAUDS CHIEF PETERSEN

Officer's Friends Numerous, Famous Detective Declares.

Since Acting Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen has been once more injected in the issues of a municipal election and is being made the target for numerous attacks in the present recall campaign, friends of the official are seeking for outside confirmation of their belief that he is a man of rare executive ability and sterling manhood.

The following letter from William A. Pinkerton, head of the famous detective agency, is one which was received today in response to inquiries in the east:

In response to your recent letter, I say that I will be very glad to come over and see you when I reach the coast, which, however, will not be until some time during the latter part of September or first of October. I do wish it were so that you could come on east.

At our recent police convention at Newark, N. J., during June last, I had the pleasure of meeting Walter J. Petersen of Oakland. I have known Petersen for many years, during which time I have had many business connections with him, and was delighted to meet him on his recent visit to the east, as I have a very high opinion of him as a police official and a gentleman. He was a prominent candidate for the position of the international association of chiefs of police of the United States and Canada, and was only defeated by five or six votes. The election took place on the last day of the

Shastina Election Called by Supervisors

YREKA, July 25.—On the showing that the territory included in the proposed incorporation of Shastina has a population of 557, the board of supervisors at a special meeting today ordered an election for August 15 and appointed the officers of election.

It is thought the question of the incorporation will carry. This is the second effort made by the citizens of Shastina to become a city of the sixth class. The last effort was rejected by the board on account of the boundaries.

Across the street from Shastina is Weed, a town of about the same population or larger, which will not be included in the proposed city.

convention, when many chiefs had departed for home and their vote in the contest was, therefore, lost; otherwise Petersen would surely have been elected.

In this connection I wish to say, that there is no chief of police in the international chiefs of police who stands higher with its members than does Walter J. Petersen and our faith to elect him was a great disappointment to his numerous friends.

Very popular local chief of police, Michael T. Long of Newark, N. J., was the entertaining host for the visiting chiefs, and that naturally had considerable weight in deciding the election.

However, Petersen was elected first vice-president of the organization and from present indications it would seem that no one can beat him for the position of president next year. I certainly enjoyed the pleasure of his visit east.

Sincerely your friend,
WM. A. PINKERTON.

Relatives Hear of Officer's Death Canadian Lieutenant Dies in Trenches

In one of the latest lists of Canadian officers killed in action is the name of Lieutenant Frederick Gordon Hughes, eldest son of Rev. S. J. and Mrs. Hughes of St. John's Quebec, word of whose death in France has been received by relatives living in this city. Rev. and Mrs. Hughes had just settled in their new charge when they received a telegram telling them of their son's death.

Lieutenant Hughes leaves a sister, Mrs. Norman Dietrick of Porterville, Tulare county. His Oakland relatives are Mrs. Olive MacDonald, 622 Thirty-seventh street; E. W. MacDonald, newspaper proprietor, and Mrs. G. A. Edgar, wife of Principal Edgar of the Franklin school, all cousins.

Lieutenant Hughes was a graduate of McGill University, graduating in 1912. Following graduation he took post-graduate work at the same institution, receiving his master of arts degree. He was also a year in the department of education at McGill. While teaching school for the past 2 years, he was planning for post-graduate work in Harvard University.

RELIEF FUND NEED IS STRONGLY FELT

Soldiers' Families Are in Want and More Money Must Come.

Although the fund for the relief of dependents of national guardsmen has not increased during the last two days, the need for money has become more apparent than ever. Applications for relief for thirty-five families, whose breadwinners are in the ranks of F Company on the border, were received today by the Chamber of Commerce committee on military affairs. Mrs. Mark L. Requa, chairman of the sub-committee in charge of the distribution of relief, at once named several women of the committee as investigators of the cases.

The relief fund now stands at $2866.50—the total that has been contributed. That amount is nearly exhausted and there is still much to be done. There is no certainty that any of the soldiers will be released soon and allowed to return to earn a living for their families, and until this release comes, it is the duty of Oakland's citizens to see to it that the loved ones of the boys in khaki are not suffering for the necessities of life.

IDORA TANK IS SCENE OF TRAGEDY

10-Year-Old Boy Falls Into Big Swimming Pool and Loses Life.

George Brown, ten years old, son of a janitor at the University of California, is dead as the result of a tragedy at Idora Park late yesterday afternoon. The boy was drowned in the swimming tank before the eyes of hundreds of spectators.

The boy with his four-year-old sister, was playing about the edge of the tank. The water was about six feet deep where he dropped.

Leaning over to talk to the smaller child, he lost his balance and fell. Before Swimming Instructor Anton Johnson, summoned by the screams of the other children, could reach the spot the boy had died.

The two children had gone to Idora to spend the day, and a large party of little ones were gathered about the tank, sands being placed in an artificial beach along the bath. An investigation into the tragedy is being conducted by the coroner's office.

The boy was a student at the Le Conte School, and a son of G. C. Brown, a janitor at the university, living at 2510 Prince street, Berkeley.

MILL MAN'S WIFE DEAD.

Succumbing to a prolonged illness from which she had suffered for more than a year, Mrs. Mattie Cowan, wife of John S. Cowan, a well-known mill man of Oakland, is dead at the family home, 1037 Arlington avenue. She was a native of Tennessee and was 53 years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Ora Cowan, and a sister, Mrs. Sam Mitchell. Interment will be in the family plot at Nashville, Tennessee.

Allen's Foot-Ease For the Troops

Many war zone hospitals have ordered Allen's Foot-Ease, the mildest powder, for use among the troops. Shaken into the shoe and used in the foot-bath, Allen's Foot-Ease gives rest and comfort, takes the friction from the shoe, and prevents the feet getting tired or sore. Drug and Department Stores everywhere sell it. 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Try it today. Advertisement.

Reed Ousts San Jose Treasurer Calmly Deposes Man Who Had Highest Vote

Ousting the official that received the highest vote at the San Jose city election, Professor Thomas H. Reed, former University of California instructor, and now city manager of San Jose, has abolished the office of city treasurer in that city. A San Jose bank will be the repository of the city's funds, will keep its books, and will in all ways perform the work formerly done by the official, at a reduction in cost.

Details of the plan were received today by Oakland bankers. The city's money, according to the plan, will be deposited with the bank, which, however, will not be permitted to loan it out. The bank will keep the city's accounts.

Louis O. Lightson, the city treasurer, one of the most popular officials in San Jose, and the man who polled the largest vote at the last election, was instructed to close his office on the first of the month. Reed wrote the charter under which he was named city manager. He gets $6000 a year, while the mayor, whose office was abolished, got $2000. Reed claims that he has already made a saving of $1000 in the difference in salaries.

Layman Is Victim of Painful Accident

J. Walter Layman, Oakland realty operator, is at his home today suffering from a broken collar-bone, as the result of an accident last night, when he slipped and fell on the stairs of his office. He was picked up by bystanders and hurried to his home, 101 Thirteenth street, where Dr. H. J. Lackey administered medical aid. The injury is not considered serious.

OFFICIALS ACCUSED.

SANTA ROSA, July 25.—Chairman C. L. Patterson of the Board of Supervisors and Roadmaster Charles H. Butler were arraigned in the Superior Court on the charge of stuffing road bills in the Mendocino road district. They were indicted by the grand jury some time ago. They were given until August 7 to enter their pleas.

JAPANESE, LOVE MAD, TRIES CRIME

Repulsed by Woman He Loved Shoots at Her and Ends Own Life.

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—H. Akazawa, a Japanese, desperate because the woman he loved would not forsake her husband and three children and elope with him, early yesterday morning attempted a crime, but without success. Then, insane with rage, he attempted to murder the woman, and, believing that he had accomplished his task, he turned his revolver upon himself and ended his life.

The woman, pretty Mrs. H. Hattori, of 428 Turner street, wife of the publisher of a local Japanese newspaper, escaped without injury, while during the enactment of the tragedy her three children slept all unmindful by her side.

According to the story that the little Japanese woman told to Detectives Barnes, Greely and Haver, Akazawa had for some time repeatedly annoyed her with his attentions. Several days ago, she said, her husband went to Denver on a business trip, and Akazawa then became more persistent in his attentions.

"Come with me to the land of the cherry blossoms," he repeatedly begged her, but each time she would order him from her home. Early yesterday morning, she said, while she lay asleep, Akazawa forced his way into her bedroom. Said he: "I have come to carry you away. If you will not go I shall kill you and carry your body away. I must have you, even if you are dead."

But again the woman ordered him out, and Akazawa drew a revolver. The woman threw the bed clothes over her head, and as she did the man fired twice. Mrs. Hattori lay very still, and, thinking that he had killed her, Akazawa ended his own life, his body falling across the woman.

The shots brought neighbors. At first it was thought that the woman was dead, but when she knew that assistance was at hand she made known that she had not been harmed, though the bullets had pierced her night clothing.

GIVEN TIME EXTENSION. RICHMOND, July 25.—The city council last evening granted the Municipal Improvement Company a sixty days' extension on its contract.

'DOCTOR'S' FIRST WIFE TELLS TALE

Says She Was Married and Divorced All in One Year.

A message, received from Stoughton, Wisconsin, from Frances Cummins, first wife of "Dr." Sherman O. Crawford, the much-married youth whose latest alliance to Margaret Abercrombie, San Francisco society girl, was recently annulled, today definitely completed the matrimonial record of the pseudo naval surgeon. While Crawford is under the care of a physician, threatened with appendicitis, his second wife, Mrs. Verna Belle Price Crawford, is ill at Providence Hospital, and Miss Abercrombie is in seclusion at her parents' home. Detectives are tracing out the various alleged matrimonial adventures of the "surgeon."

The message from the first wife gives the details of Crawford's marriage. Crawford, after being married several times, according to the charges against him, posed as a naval surgeon, married Miss Abercrombie, and later is declared to have admitted the deception. He is threatened with prosecution on a bigamy charge.

The message from the first wife says: "We were married in April, 1913, in Oregon City. We lived in Clackamas for two months with my people and he then went to Seattle. After that I heard nothing of him and in March, 1914, I divorced him. He greatly misrepresented himself, claiming to be the heir of rich relations in California."

Mrs. Verna Belle Price Crawford, the second wife, who is under the care of Dr. F. G. Todd at the Providence Hospital, is reported to be recovering. Dr. Crawford, threatened with appendicitis and under the care of Dr. W. K. Keenan, is improving and is believed to have escaped the necessity of an operation.

The message from Dr. Crawford's first wife dispels all question of his matrimonial record. She says she can prove she was married and divorced within a year.

S. F. LUMBERMEN RETURN TO WORK

Unionists End Strike of Month;
Added Police Force
Not Needed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—San Francisco's labor troubles are over for the present. This morning the lumber yards, which have been practically idle for more than a month, were the scene of renewed activity and the union men were once again at work.

Announcement was made yesterday that the lumber yards would reopen and it was understood that strikebreakers would be employed. In consequence, a large, extra detail of police was assigned to Captain Marcus Anderson of the Southern district. Late last night an agreement was entered into between the union men and their employers and it is understood that the unions affected outside the lumber trade have also agreed to a settlement.

This morning the men went back to

May Melt a Famous Statue 'Copper Is Valuable'—Tilden Sculptor Regains 'Bear Hunt'

"The Bear Hunt," the famous bronze group of primitive life which has been standing in the grounds of the California School for the Deaf and Blind in Berkeley for more than twenty years, has become once again the property of its creator, Douglas Tilden, the deaf mute sculptor, after a prolonged controversy with officials of the institution. But now that he has the piece of statuary in his possession Tilden does not know what to do with it.

In the Paris Salon of 1893 "The Bear Hunt" was the largest work and the policemen were returned to their posts. All is quiet south of Market street and for the present all difficulties between employers and employees have been settled.

American work, shown and it aroused enthusiastic comment from European art-critics for the vigor and force of the modeling. It was on exhibition at the Chicago Exposition in 1894, and shortly after that it was moved to the location in the lawn of the school.

At that time Tilden mortgaged the group to the school for $500, with the understanding that it was to remain there until the debt was paid. Later, however, when Tilden wished to redeem the statue, the claim was made by Dr. Warrington Wilkinson and Warren Olney that the amount of the indebtedness was $2231. A newspaper controversy started, in which harsh terms were applied to Tilden, the board of directors even threatening to sell the group at auction. The sculptor retorted that the institution proposed by machinations to obtain possession of property which he valued at $10,000.

Six months ago Tilden appealed the controversy to the present board of directors, no one of whom had anything to do with the original disagreement. The board reviewed the entire matter and agreed that Tilden was entitled to the return of the group on the payment of the original loan.

"I do not know at present what to do with the group," wrote Tilden when interviewed today. "There may be two ways of utilizing it. One would be to sell it for old copper. As the group weighs about two tons, a neat price could be obtained at the present war rates for that metal."

"The other way is to petition Congress to purchase the group for Alaska. I started serious sculpture in California; somebody will also have to start art in Alaska, and I may as well be the man. That country is no colder than Norway and Sweden, which we know sent excellent works of art to the Panama-Pacific Exposition."

"As the action of the former board gave a bad name to my group I have hitherto never been able to find a buyer for it."

BOARD OF TRUSTEES ORDER WORK DONE

San Leandro Body Takes Steps for Improvements
and Fixes Fees.

SAN LEANDRO, July 25.—Although one-third of the Thrasher estate is owned by the city, the city has been assessed as if it were private property. City Attorney Harris P. Jones reported to the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, at the request of the trustees and council, that the city had been placed on the delinquent list. Street improvements occupied almost the entire attention of the Board last night. Extensive improvements of East Fourteenth street, including the installation of electric lights, widening and the installation of a new storm sewer, are being carried out, one at a time. W. J. Tobias, Oakland contractor, was awarded the contract for the placing of a storm sewer on East Fourteenth street, his bid being $1016.10. There were six bidders for the work. Measure of this city being second with $1162.16.

A ordinance was passed for the first and second time establishing curb grades on East Fourteenth street. A resolution of intention to establish the curb grade on the center line of that thoroughfare was passed.

Superintendent of Streets Joseph Peralta was instructed to notify property owners on the south side of Castro street, between East Fourteenth and Washington streets, who have not already laid a cement or oil sidewalk, to lay a five foot cement sidewalk within forty-five days. If they fail to do this the Board will have the work carried out at the property owner's expense, under the improvement act.

Similar notice will be given property owners on the easterly and westerly sides of Carpenter street, between the northerly line of Williams street and the southerly line of Saunders street, who will be requested to lay a five foot concrete pavement and wooden curbing within forty-five days. The city will furnish the materials.

A petition for a street light at the corner of Chumella and Jefferson streets was referred to the Board of Supervisors. An ordinance was read for the first and second time establishing the grades for widening East Fourteenth street. The trustees passed a resolution fixing the fees of City Engineer Robert H. Goodwin at one per cent of the total contract price for street work.

Protest New Tariff of Southern Pacific

Protesting the new tariff of the Southern Pacific, eliminating the differential rate on livestock between Oakland and San Francisco, pending the hearing on general differential rates, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce yesterday wired the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, interposing vigorous objection to the proposed new tariff going into effect. The State Railroad Commission will also receive protests.

The differential on livestock, under the old tariff, has been in effect for some years, giving Oakland meat dealers a decided advantage and causing the establishment of a large meat and packing industry on this side of the bay. When this differential was used as precedent by the chamber in its fight for general differential rates in action before the commission, the San Francisco interests at once demanded of the railroad that all differential rates be eliminated and recently a new tariff, announcing the removal of the rate, was issued.

It is this that is being protested. Removal of the differential will not only injure Oakland meat firms, according to the chamber, but would injure its general interests. Evidence showing that it is cheaper to the roads to land freight here than in San Francisco, making the San Francisco movement, will be placed before the commission.

Aloha Parlor to Install Officers

Aloha Parlor, No. 106, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will hold a public installation of officers and dance in the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, this evening. All friends of the members are invited to attend. The following officers will be installed: President, Theresa Allen; first vice-president, Emma McLaughlin; second vice-president, Lillian Deppie; third vice-president, Jesse Humphreys; marshal, Emma Howland; inside sentinel, Mrs. McMoray; outside sentinel, Mildred Asher; secretary, Minnie Martin; treasurer, Elsie Nunes; financial secretary, Isabelle Wass; trustees, Mrs. Rugland, Mrs. Baegard and Mrs. Smith; organist, Hilda Carson.

Will Open Class in Navigation Monday

The fall term of school for the navigation class will open on July 31, when all those who desire to secure a knowledge of navigation without cost should present themselves at 7 o'clock at the classroom in the Santa Marina building, 112 Market street, San Francisco, where a new class will be organized. This course is becoming very popular, and a large enrollment is expected. Other classes are in advanced stages of the work, so there is opportunity as well for those who have already some knowledge of the subject.

Hungry Man Smashes Window for Food

A sweet-toothed burglar broke the window of the Home Bakery, 1537 Seventh street, early this morning, making a clean sweep of the pastry repasting therein. Officer Schuler discovered the shattered glass and empty tins at 6 o'clock.

Turkish Cruiser Is Safe After Battle

BERLIN, July 25.—The Turkish cruiser Midilli succeeded in breaking safely through a strong line of Russian sea forces south of Sevastopol and returned safely to her base after a four-hour engagement, according to an official statement from Constantinople today.

Knott's Attorneys to Seek Dismissal

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Arguments on the demurrer filed by Supervisor Zeb Knott's attorneys will be heard by Judge E. McKenna, August 1. It is believed at that time that Knott's attorney will ask for a dismissal of the indictment on the grounds that no crime has been shown to have been committed because it does not specify to whom the saloon license was to have been issued or whether Knott accepted the alleged bribe in an official capacity.

BASKET LUNCH.
Oak Leaf Chapter, No. 8, Order of Eastern Star, will give a basket picnic in Moenwood park next Thursday. The members and their friends and children have been invited to participate in the fête.

SUES ON VERBAL LEASE.

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—Based on a verbal lease made sixty years ago, a suit has just been filed in the Superior Court to recover fifty feet of property near the old Plaza church.

According to the complaint brought on behalf of A. L. Abrahams as administrator of the estate of Senora

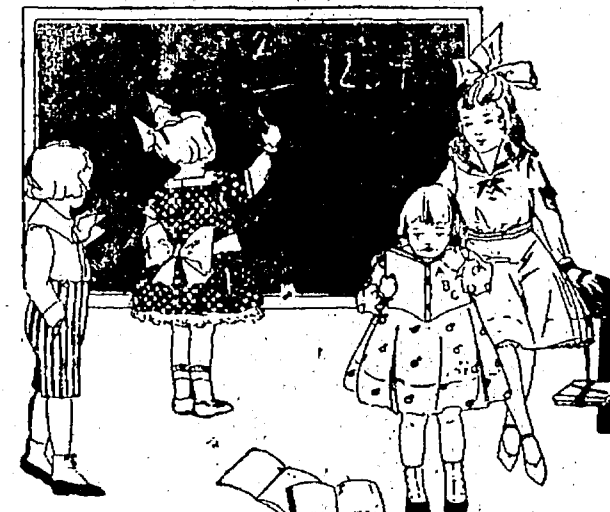

Banancia, Sotelo de Dominguez, who died June 15, 1865, the property in question was leased to the church to be used as a burial ground until such a time as the church acquired a permanent burial ground. It is claimed that when a new cemetery was acquired in 1875 the property was not returned back to the Dominguez heirs.

STOLE SACKS, IS CHARGED.
Wyatt Rose is under arrest today on the charge of having stolen a large number of cement sacks from the William H. Taylor Company, 5001 Fond street. Rose was arrested by Patrolman Christopher and is accused of taking 150 of the bags from the property concern.

—Because he likes it

OF course, you are responsible for economy in your house. But—confess it! when your husband hints about something for the table that you really should n't afford—you just get it for him, and try to swallow the guilty feeling.

Then thank goodness for fine coffee! There's the real happy-breakfast smile in it for him—and not the slightest uneasiness about extravagance for you. Because good coffee—at least Schilling's Coffee—is economical, as well as good. It is so full-flavored, so rich in strength, that you use a quarter less of Schilling's than of others.

Much of the credit for this is due to the vacuum-sealed tins in which Schilling's is always packed. They protect the coffee perfectly—save two, three times their cost by preserving the fine strength that is the coffee: the essence that flavors your cup.

Sold only through grocers.
40 cents a pound.

U. S. TO PAY $25,000,000 FOR ISLANDS

Danish West Indies to Become Part of This Country

Have Immense Strategic Value as Canal Guard

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Official announcement was made at the White House today that negotiations virtually have been completed for the purchase of the Danish West Indies by the United States from Denmark for $25,000,000.

The treaty probably will be signed today and submitted at once to the United States Senate and the Danish parliament for approval.

The islands are of tremendous strategic value to the United States. Their acquisition will eliminate danger of any European power acquiring them and establishing a naval base near the Panama Canal. Negotiations have been on and off for some years. It is understood now that sentiment in the Danish parliament favors the purchase.

The Danish West Indies comprise the islands of St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix, a group of the Lesser Antilles. The area is 150 square miles and the population approximately 80,000.

It is understood the United States as a part of the deal relinquishes any rights by discovery to certain parts of Greenland, a Danish possession.

Wilson to Remain in Washington, Declared

WASHINGTON, July 25.—President Wilson has definitely decided to remain in Washington, no matter how late Congress is in session, and will postpone notification of his renomination until after adjournment.

WAGE RATE CAMPAIGN. RICHMOND, July 25.—Health Officer C. R. Blake reported to the city council at its meeting last evening that 112 rats have been caught and killed within the past week. This makes a grand total of 204 since the government instituted campaign to rid the city of the rodents was started.

'CONSCIENCE FUND' REACHES $54,923

Large Sum Returned by Unknown Defrauders of Government.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Contributions to the treasury's "conscience fund" for the fiscal year ending June 30 amounted to $54,923.15, making a total of $48,734.54 returned by persons whose consciences were uneasy over frauds against the government.

Figures compiled at the treasury department yesterday show the returns were much larger during the past year than ever before, chiefly because of the unusual contributions, one for $30,000 and one for $10,000.

It was in 1811 when the first $5 came with a letter saying the writer had taken that amount from the government. The money was turned into the treasury and although actually never has been a separate conscience fund, records of all such contributions have been kept. It is an unwritten law of the department that no effort shall be made to learn the identity of conscience stricken contributors, and even in cases where the writer has confessed to theft from the government the money has been accepted and no effort made to prosecute. From 1811 until 1837 there were no receipts. Then, except for 1848, not a year has passed without amounts large and small coming in.

Senate in Debate Over Big Army Bill

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The Senate today resumed discussion of the army appropriation bill, with several important items believed likely to cause considerable debate. One was the proposed allowance of $13,251,000 for aviation, $10,000,000 more than the House appropriated. Increases of more than $30,000,000, mainly for guns and ammunition, were approved yesterday, although the Senate Saturday cut $18,000,000 from the bill. The decrease was in items placed in the bill by the House when the Mexican situation was more critical.

Other vote was in prospect today on the appropriation for small arms and munition. The Senate yesterday cut from $5,000,000 to $2,000,000, and several Senators said they would ask reconsideration.

Hoey Is Postmaster at Martinez Office

WASHINGTON, July 25.—James Hoey was nominated today to be postmaster at Martinez, Cal.

Hoey, who is widely known, is one of the most prominent Democrats of Contra Costa county. For a number of years he has been secretary of the county central committee of his party.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Senatorship to Be Topic at a Gathering of Party Leaders.

A state-wide conference of Republicans has been called for next Saturday at the Palace hotel in San Francisco to consider the senatorship. The calling of this conference was suggested in an editorial published in the San Francisco Chronicle. Republican leaders and the Republican press throughout the State heartily endorsed the proposal, with the result that Francis V. Keessling, chairman of the Republican State central committee has issued the following call:

"San Francisco, July 24, 1916. "To the Members of the Republican State Central Committee and of the Executive Committee Thereof, and of the Republican County Central Committees: Two Republicans seeking the Republican nomination for United States Senator and one Progressive seeking the Republican endorsement by way of nomination may make it possible for the Republican electors of this State to have an opportunity to vote for a Republican candidate for United States Senator. The emergency and fair play demand intelligent action. For this purpose, a conference of Republicans for the purpose of endorsing a Republican for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. The meeting will be held at the Palace hotel, Saturday, July 29, 1916, at 2 p. m.

The importance of the conference must appeal to you, and you are earnestly requested to be present in person if possible. If a county committee cannot be present, a representative should be selected by the county committee to represent such a one. Respectfully, F. V. KEESLING, Chairman."

The conference is called in the interest of no individual, but in an effort to unite Republicans upon one Senatorial candidate from the south, which section of the State it is generally recognized, is entitled to the Senatorship this year, following an unbroken precedent. Willis H. Booth and Judge Walter Bordwell will both strive for the endorsement, it is thought, and abide by the result. A large attendance is expected. The Progressive Republican faction has already held a conference and made an endorsement. Having taken this action, they now expect the Republicans for pursuing a similar course.

Booth Urges Changes in Important Laws

BERKELEY, July 25.—Stopping off at Berkeley last night to visit his parents in Hearst avenue, Willis Booth, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator from California, was prevailed upon by the National Republican Club of Berkeley to address its regular weekly meeting.

Booth said that during the ensuing four years the highest type of statesmanship was needed to save the country from the effects of ill-considered legislation enacted during recent years. He spoke on the effect of the present shipping bill and declared that before the Pacific Ocean could ever become the path of trade that her resources should be made inherent right a new and comprehensive shipping bill that would conserve the rights of all American shippers must be passed.

The trade war which the end of the war will bring he spoke of as inevitable and predicted that the only succor the United States could look for is a reciprocal tariff, an anti-dumping law that would prohibit any foreign country from dumping great quantities of cheap-made goods in this country and strict enforcement of all trade laws.

Booth was preceded by John S. Partridge, who spoke of the necessity for all Republicans to coalesce into the fight this fall if the party is to be returned to power.

Progressive Leaders Plan Big Conference

NEW YORK, July 25.—Progressive party leaders here said today that in preparation for the Progressive national meeting in Chicago, on August 5, a conference of leaders from all parts of the country will be held in an eastern city some day this week. The date and place have not been definitely selected.

Water A. Johnson, chairman of the Progressive State Committee, announced that he would call a conference of State leaders for some day late this week to determine upon a course of action. "I would have called it earlier," said Johnson, "but I thought it best to give them a chance to cool off after the Syracuse meeting before bringing them together."

It was announced today that the Progressive leaders who failed to put through the program for endorsement of the Republican candidate at the Syracuse conference expected to circulate a petition endorsing Hughes' candidacy among the enrolled Progressives throughout New York State.

College Militia to Form New Reserve

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Formation of college militia organizations into an officers' reserve corps is proposed by the War Department today in an order providing for release from border service of the university students, September 1.

Pacific Grove Opens Feast of Lanterns

PACIFIC GROVE, July 25.—Visitors from the interior valleys and points in Monterey county are pouring into the city for the annual Feast of Lanterns which will take place this week in connection with the Chautauqua assembly. This marine fete, which has become a regular feature of the summer season, is held upon an ancient Chinese legend. The shores of the bay are festooned with thousands of lanterns, and decorated launches and boats from a night pageant of surpassing loveliness.

In connection with the Feast of Lanterns this year, extra attractions have been provided for the visitors. The week's celebration opened today with acrobatic flights and other features. The first "wild" show with the "Happy Jack" outfit will be given on Thursday afternoon. Friday will be observed as "Salinas Day," with an automobile parade and other amusements. The King City boy scouts arrived this morning for participation in the festivities, and are encamped near Aulones Point.

Wilson Firm For Navy Bill

Congressmen Receive Official Notification

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Official word went to the capitol today that President Wilson stands behind the construction program of the naval bill as it passed the Senate, including four dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers to be built immediately.

Democrats to Hold Campaign Dinner

A Woodrow Wilson dinner and reception to Alameda county's delegates to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis, will mark the opening of the Presidential campaign for Wilson in Alameda county. The affair will be held at the Key Route Inn, on Saturday evening, August 5 and will be attended by all of the leaders in democracy in the county. Republican opponents of Woodrow Wilson, regardless of party affiliation, have been invited to attend.

The guests of honor will be Robert M. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Edgar L. Rasmussen, Mrs. Edgar L. Rasmussen. The banquet will be presided over by Judge William J. Hayes, who will introduce the speakers of the evening.

Funeral of Senator Patterson Takes Place

DENVER, July 25.—The funeral of the late United States Senator Thomas M. Patterson, who died at his home here Sunday, took place today. The services, held at the First Presbyterian church, were simple. Among messages of sympathy received by relatives was a telegram from President Wilson. The state capitol closed at noon.

Allen Nomination Confirmed by Senate

WOMEN ORGANIZE TO AID CAMPAIGN

"Try Oakland First" Plan Is Furthered by Committee.

Women of the Chamber of Commerce are out today arousing a city-wide sentiment in the project, following a meeting of their bureau in their new clubrooms in the Hotel Oakland last night.

Every women's organization in this city is to be asked to help. Those who have quarters will be asked to keep open house. Those that have not will be requested to aid in the entertaining, to take the women visitors from other cities around to see the sights, or to extend to them the hospitality of Oakland-made products at the Industrial Show in the Auditorium, which is to be held in the same week, September 23 to 29.

The show there also will be a booth for the display of women-made manufactures—artistic brasswork, needlework, candies and such other things in which the feminine taste excels the masculine.

The wives of Oakland's manufacturers are to be organized into a special committee to see that every stranger who comes to town enjoys himself or herself, and that for her she may pick up a good deal of the various factories in the city. "We make everything from cradles to coffins in Oakland," he declared. "But most of the people do not realize it. We want them to. That is the principal reason for 'Try-Oakland-First' Week."

The committee of the Women's Bureau who will take charge of the work include the following: Propaganda, Mrs. Gladys Barnard, Alice E. Burnall, T. H. Brown, Miss Z. W. Potter, Mrs. Helen Power, Miss Elizabeth Sherman and Miss Bessie Webster. Publicity, Miss Bessie Wood and Mrs. Gita Randall. Exhibits, Mrs. G. Whitaker and Miss Emma R. Ilsen. Entertainment, Gladys Lent Barnard and Miss Nita Randall.

Miners in Walkout; Demand Wage Increase

KENNET, July 24.—Six hundred men walked out of the Mammoth mine here last night and 300 muckers, chuk tenders and helpers demand 50 cents a day increase in wages, as had been given to miners, timbermen and machine men. The miners, timbermen and machine men, though satisfied with their wages, quit also.

A conference of the men and company officials failed. The company offered to increase wages 25 cents and give a bonus of 25 cents a long as copper is over 15 cents. It is at present paying a bonus of 25 cents, conditional on copper being 20 cents or better. The men insist on the 50 cents increase without conditions, all because copper is so high. There is no disorder.

Differences between the company and the men have caused a siege. Men are coming from the mine to Kennet. It is wondered whether the strike will spread to the smelter.

SUFFRAGISTS QUIZZ PRESIDENT WILSON

Women Vote in Balance, Is Information Given to Executive.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—A delegation of women suffragists called upon President Wilson yesterday to tell him a large number of women voters were waiting to decide for whom they will vote, and wanted to know how he and Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, stood on the Susan B. Anthony constitutional amendment for nation-wide woman suffrage.

The President did not commit himself, but he asked the women many questions and they said at leaving that they felt encouraged. Wilson hitherto has stood for state action on woman suffrage, but after their interview today members of the delegation thought he might change his attitude. The delegation included Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch of Kansas and Miss Helen Todd of California. Members of the delegation already have seen Hughes and other women affiliated with them plan to see him again. They declared that the great majority of women voters in Western states will vote for the candidate who definitely commits himself to the federal amendment.

The women said they desired to vote the Democratic ticket but put suffrage before party.

According to a statement given out by the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage, Mrs. Blatch told the President that the Democratic party was blind to the starogated advantages of its position; that she was aware it did not have the necessary two-thirds vote to pass the federal amendment, but that if every Democrat voted for it the burden would be put on the Republican party.

LEGAL ADVICE AND CHARGES CONFUSE

Defendant's Wife Offers Final Opinion Which Guides Solomon.

Henry Beaumier, arrested on five separate charges, alternately accepted the advice of J. H. Grande, a produce merchant who presented himself as "attorney de facto" if not de jure, and that of Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey when he appeared in court today. Between the two he found himself alternately pleading guilty and not guilty to the various charges, demanding jury trials and the clemency of the court, and otherwise causing Clerk of the Court Ed Talbot to make his court calendar look like a diagram of trench warfare on the western front.

It was at this point that Mrs. Bauer took a hand in the proceedings and informed the court that she thought he had received legal counsel enough, and that she could take him home and induce him to keep out of trouble if the court would admonish him to keep away from saloons. Judge L. B. Weinman assumed the role of Solomon and accepted Mrs. Beaumier's suggestion, and disposed of the cases as follows:

Charge of battery, stricken from the calendar.

Charges of intoxication, use of profane and vulgar language, disturbing the peace and violating the motor vehicle act—pleas of guilty accepted, and defendant placed on probation.

The complaining witness, John Bohan, agreed to this disposition of the matter, explaining that he was a friend of the defendant, and had caused his incarceration for his own good, and to induce him to straighten up.

The Fallacy of Paraffine Base

Eastern oil manufacturers have long extolled the superior virtues of paraffine-base motor oils. Of course! Paraffine-base crudes were nearest home and freight costs lower.

But Pacific Coast motorists have proved for themselves that Zerolene, an oil made from selected California crude—asphalt-base, gave best results.

Now their practical experience is supported by the testimony of international experts.

Lieut. Bryan, a U.S. government expert, stated before the American Society of Naval Engineers, at Washington, D. C.: "Oils made from the asphalt-base crudes have shown themselves better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon forming proclivities are concerned than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Zerolene is the oil used by the majority of Pacific Coast motorists. Highest competitive awards, San Francisco and San Diego Expositions.

AMERICANS ARE ORDERED TO LEAVE

Priest and Business Man Return From Ireland; Make Charges.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Rev. James Horace Markey, a Roman Catholic priest of Chicago, and Richard Ebbett, a native of Nebraska, who moved to Ireland and established a business there four years ago, asserted upon their arrival here aboard the steamship St. Paul from England that they had been ordered by the British authorities to leave that country.

Ebbett, a veterinarian and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, complained that the police visited his home at Old Castle, Ireland, May 20 and took away a Malayan sword which he had obtained from the Philippines. He wrote several notes to the British government asking to have it returned to him and as a result, he said, he was recently arrested and informed he would be deported. He added that he was put aboard the St. Paul when that vessel sailed from the other side.

The Rev. Father Markey, who had been in Rome, said he was on his way to County Mayo, Ireland, when he was held up by the British authorities. He protested that he was an American citizen he added and was told to return to America.

MOUNTAIN GIRL IS HEROINE IN DRAMA, 'A WOMAN'S HONOR'

JOSE COLLINS IN "A WOMAN'S HONOR."

The exciting story of a woman's honor and the adventures it led her into form the basis of "A Woman's Honor," the Fox photo play in which Jose Collins is now appearing at the Broadway.

Helena, a beautiful mountain peasant girl, is hurriedly married to Roberto, leaving for the coal mines of Pennsylvania. Helena, attempting to follow at a later date, falls into the hands of a wealthy and powerful rogue, who inveigles her to his house, where she is kept a prisoner and terribly abused. Finally, on meeting her husband, who is on his death bed, she swears vengeance on those who have encompassed her ruin. While posing for an artist she attracts a young and wealthy countryman, and, through him, is able to wreak a terrible vengeance upon her persecutors.

Jose Collins, the new Fox star appearing in this picture, is famous throughout the country as a musical comedy star, having scored a great success last season in "Alone at Last." Those of the past generation will remember her mother, Lottie Collins, who composed the famous "Tea-ra-ra-boom-de-ay."

WOMEN SCARGE AT SOLDIER DANCES

Men Are Their Own Partners in Columbus, N. M., Cabarets.

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 25.—American soldiers and militiamen, with red bandanas worn turban style on their heads, are the "girls" in the big cow shed cabaret running full blast for the thousands of fighting men here today.

This is just one of the curious features that have sprung up to make the handful of sunbaked shacks on a scorched New Mexican plain that is Columbus, a boom town since the memorable Villa raid.

Although Luna county is dry territory, so-called social clubs sprang up like magic. These are exceedingly exclusive. The tender of a silver dollar will procure a membership card. Sixty barrels of empty bottles of what made Milwaukee famous attest their popularity. At one time the military ordered these clubs closed after two murders and many shootings had followed debauches. Now the clubs have obtained charters from the state capital.

One of the strangest sights of the camp is the "cabaret." An alert speculator built a barn-like structure of corrugated tin and put in a dance floor. He hired an orchestra and started business. Soldiers and truck drivers flocked to the dance hall. The man dance together and enjoy it hugely. At times as many as fifty couples of men are on the floor.

To the music of a good three-piece orchestra they wait, two-step and fox-trot. Some of the truck drivers just out from the big cities put on fancy dances. The hall is always crowded with men drinking soft drinks and watching the dancers.

There is little formality. If one stands around long he is sure to be approached and asked for "the next dance." Dust-covered truckmen, just up from a five-day journey from the south, fox-trot blithely with their comrades. They affect the gaudy red bandana wrapped around the head.

The spectators, quickly pick out the best dancer, and he is much sought after for the next dance. Lately a few women have appeared in camp. They frequent the hall. But the men are still greatly in the majority.

Police Investigate Minor Motor Crash

The traffic bureau is investigating the collision at Telegraph avenue and Sixteenth street of the automobile of Mrs. B. Atwater, 420 Fairmont avenue, and the team of David Hoffer, 1411 Alston way, Berkeley. According to the police report, Mrs. Atwater was driving west on Sixteenth street when Hoffer's team ran into the motor vehicle at the corner. The wagon pole was broken, as a result, and the automobile door dented. The accident was reported to the central police station by Officer Peely.

REBATE PLAN ON CITY TAX UNDER FIRE

MacMullen's Efforts to Collect Commission Probed

Treasurer Cooley Advises of Direct Payment to Citizens

That C. Stuart MacMullen, who is at present engaged in harassing the city council with a series of initiative ordinances concerning revenue matters, used his time while employed by the city as revenue expert at $225 a month to make lists of taxpayers to whom a return of excess personal taxes was due to be used by him in collecting these payments on a percentage basis was the statement of City Treasurer F. A. Cooley contained in a letter to Commissioner W. H. Edwards.

When asked about the letter today, Edwards admitted that he had asked for information from Cooley concerning MacMullen's activities in his own behalf. When he was employed by the city, but declined to make public the contents of the letter. He said that certain persons had asked him for the information, and he had asked Cooley about it. Cooley immediately responded with the communication, and Edwards transmitted it to the persons who had asked for the information.

TWO ORDINANCES.

MacMullen has already filed two initiative ordinances, which he has demanded that the city council shall pass. One provided for the creation of a job of revenue expert to which he sought to be appointed, while the other provided that the tax rate of the city should be reduced to $1 on each $100 of assessed value, for maintenance, making an actual tax rate of $1.52, including bond interest and redemption. He has announced that he is prepared to advance several more ordinances. The council has so far declined to pass any of the MacMullen legislation.

Cooley's letter explains that MacMullen while being paid by the city as revenue expert a year ago, used his time to visit the city treasurer's office and to make lists of property owners to whom a return of excess personal property taxes was due. These lists he proposed to use to obtain assignments of the claims, and to collect the money on a percentage basis, said in some cases to have been as high as 50 per cent of the total.

COOLEY EXPLAINS.

To forestall MacMullen's attempt to gain a revenue for himself in this manner, Cooley explained in his letter that he had adopted the plan of his predecessor in office, Edwin McEneaney, and had sent out checks to the persons to whom a return was due, instead of merely notifying them by postcard, and thereby giving MacMullen the opportunity of going to them and securing an assignment of the claim.

Cooley's letter with regard to the MacMullen follows:

"In response to your inquiry concerning the work of C. S. MacMullen in connection with the department, I will say that Mr. MacMullen has for years collected, on commission, the excess personal property tax to be returned to the taxpayers of this city.

"There is now on file, in this office, a large number of assignments to MacMullen of any money that might be due from the city to the assignor. This created the impression that it is difficult to secure the payment of any claim from the city, and that the city will not readily pay its just bills.

"In order to correct this impression, I followed the plan of my predecessor and sent out checks in payment of all these claims. The taxpayers were thus able to receive immediately the full amount due without paying any commission. Before I sent these checks out, MacMullen asked to be allowed to purchase assignments as he has previously done.

"During the time that he was employed by the city as revenue expert, MacMullen came to this office almost daily. During these visits, he made lists of the names of those taxpayers who would receive larger amounts to be returned to them. At this time he also collected on commission, excess personal property tax.

"In regard to Mr. MacMullen's statement concerning official graft and influence it is a principle of philosophy that no man should be in a position of natural for that person to think.

"Respectfully,
(Signed) "F. A. COOLEY,
"Treasurer and Tax Collector."

Paralysis Kills 38; May Interne Young

NEW YORK, July 25.—Another decided increase in the number of new infantile paralysis cases reported was followed today by a drastic movement by government authorities which may mean the barring of children under 16 years of age from leaving New York State. Reports to the health department up to 10 o'clock this morning counted 150 new cases of the disease, against 93 reported yesterday. Only on one day—July 11, when 155 cases were reported—has today's record been exceeded. Thirty-eight deaths were reported as against 31 yesterday.

Nevada Man to Get California Reward

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—J. H. Stern, sheriff of Ormsby county, Nevada, is entitled to the $1000 reward offered by the governor of California for the capture of Joseph White, who escaped from San Quentin prison. The attorney-general ruled today that although California supreme court decisions decided against a peace officer in California trying to collect a reward for the capture of a criminal in this state, it is pointed out that in the case of an officer outside the state making the arrest he is entitled to the reward.

Highway Signs Must Stay Until December

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—The State Highway Commission, according to a statement issued by Highway Commissioner A. B. Fletcher, will not remove the permanent State highway signs, and autists will suffer no inconvenience as the result of this order removing the advertisements.

BERKELEY MAN DROWNED IN MOUNTAIN ACCIDENT

Robert Belcher, U. C. Graduate, Oil Operator, Victim of Stumbling Horse

FRESNO, July 25.—Robert Belcher, an oil man of Berkeley, was drowned yesterday in the high Sierras about forty miles back of Huntington lake. Belcher, who was with G. W. Lewis, a broker of San Francisco, and H. U. Maxfield and son, Jack, of this city, was on a trail near the mouth of Evolution creek when his mount slipped and he was thrown into the stream. The body had not been recovered at last night's reports. Belcher's mother, brother and sister live in Berkeley.

Robert Belcher was the son of the late Judge J. S. Belcher of San Francisco. He was graduated from the University of California with the class of 1900.

He was unmarried and made his home with his mother at the Claremont hotel.

For several years he had been engaged in the oil business as an operator. He was associated in this business with E. B. and A. D. King, with offices in the Merchants' Exchange building, San Francisco.

He was a member of the Sequoyah Country club and an enthusiastic golfer.

Surviving him besides his mother are two brothers, William and Richard, of Marysville, both of whom are prominent in Yuba county affairs.

A niece, Miss Bobbie Belcher, is engaged to marry John Goodman of Berkeley this fall.

By a narrow margin nineteen men were chosen members of the new Alameda county grand jury this afternoon, the second venire of names having been exhausted through absence of members, or valid excuses accepted by the court, just enough names being left to constitute the jury.

The jury was drawn before Superior Judges Ogden and William Wast.

Kean P. Poirier, 6149 Shattuck avenue, was appointed foreman. The jury immediately met and organized for the setting of meeting dates and the selection of a secretary. Following are the members of the new inquisitorial body: Fred A. Jordan, 324 Telegraph avenue;

Wooden Shoes for America, Foretold

Leather Famine Faced by Shoe Manufacturers

CHICAGO, July 25.—Wooden shoes for Americans within two years was the prediction made here today by delegates to the Illinois Shoe and Leather Manufacturers' Association's first annual convention.

"This country is facing a leather famine. Embargoes placed by the allies against cattle shipping, and the consequent dropping of the price of leather until it will be in luxury to wear a pair of shoes," said one delegate.

"Shoes will cost $10 a pair and only millionaires will be able to afford high-legged boots."

"If Uncle Sam doesn't do something to relieve the situation America will not only become a wooden shoe nation, but also a vegetarian nation as well," said R. W. Ranney, Galesburg, president of the association.

Oakland Man Is Drowned at Alameda

Police are searching the Alameda waterfront for the body of Redick Morrow, 23 years of age, of 1937 Eighth avenue, Oakland, who is believed to have been drowned Sunday while bathing at Surf Beach. The discovery today that his clothing was still in the locker in the bath house gives credence to that explanation for his mysterious disappearance.

Last Sunday Morrow accompanied his mother and his brother James to the beach resort and they spent the afternoon there. Morrow was still in the water when his mother and brother left for their home at 5 o'clock, thinking that he would follow them later. He did not return, however.

Today the locker, which Morrow had rented was broken open and his clothing was found therein.

TO IMPROVE GARRARD AVENUE. RICHMOND, July 25.—The city council last evening ordered plans and specifications for a 20-foot roadway on the east side of Garrard avenue, between Ohio and Cutting, have again petitioned the city council for the improvement of the street, and the council accordingly directed the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for the work.

Electrocuted by Fishing Pole

Bishop Eveland Victim of Accident

CARLSLE, Pa., July 25.—The partially burned body of Rev. William Perry Eveland, bishop of the Methodist-Episcopal Church in the Philippine Islands and Southern Asia, was found this afternoon along the banks of a creek near his summer home at Mount Holly Springs. He had been electrocuted when a steel fishing pole he was carrying connected with a high tension wire concealed by foliage.

Bishop Eveland had been missing from his home since last night. He started for a favorite fishing point several miles from his home, and when he failed to return after dark, a searching party was organized. All night the posse searched the storm-swept mountains.

When the body was found the steel fishing rod was still caught in the fatal wire. Around the face and arms the clothing was burned off and the flesh terribly seared.

IDENTITY BODY.

RICHMOND, July 25.—Identification of the body of J. P. Cooper, picked up in the bay waters at Torrey yesterday, was made this morning by the mother, Mrs. Cooper, 165 Paris street, San Francisco. It was found by the coroner's office that the dead man had a son of 32 years and three sisters. He was divorced from his wife.

SAILOR FATALLY HURT. RICHMOND, July 25.—Franz Roberts, a sailor on the steamer Cleone, was probably fatally injured last evening when a tie fell from an unloading sling and struck him on the back of the head. His skull was badly fractured. The Cleone was unloading ties at the Santa Fe landing at Ferry point when the accident occurred.

IMPROVE SOUTH FIFTEENTH. RICHMOND, July 25.—Property owners on South Fifteenth street between Ohio and Cutting, have again petitioned the city council for the improvement of the street, and the council accordingly directed the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for the work.

TREVINO PLAYS PACIFY BORDER

First Move to Pursue Bandits, Is Order of President Carranza.

CHIHUAHUA CITY, July 25.—General Trevino announced today that he had received orders from General Carranza to make every possible effort to pacify and rehabilitate Northern Mexico. The first step necessary to comply with these orders, he added, is the extermination of Villa and his bandits and representatives from General Matia-Ramos, in active command of the campaign in Northern Durango indicate that this is on the verge of completion.

The despatches stated because of his recent hard riding Villa's injured leg gives him great pain and he has been to cry out frequently. No surgeon being available he has been compelled to lance himself several times recently with rude knives to alleviate the pain.

General Trevino issued a formal statement denying American reports that he had been summoned to Mexico City and that either General Luis Herrera or General Luis Caballero had been appointed to supersede him.

CHURCH'S HALF PAGAN, HE SAYS

BERKELEY, July 25.—The Church is more pagan than Christian, according to George T. Tolson of the Pacific Theological Seminary, who is filling the pulpit of the First Christian church during the absence of Rev. H. H. Tolson, the pastor, who is on his vacation.

"No man has a right to criticize the church who is not doing what he can to further its work," Professor Tolson told his congregation. "And it is because I believe in the church and am looking for it to get away from the teachings of Jesus Christ. He taught that the kingdom is to be established on this earth by the efforts of his disciples, but the church soon began to teach that the kingdom of Heaven is to be looked for on the other side of the grave."

"The business of the church these many centuries has been not to save the world, but to save a few individuals and let the world go to rack and ruin. Even yet many seem to think that so long as they believe the correct doctrine it is a saved man, no matter what his standard of morality may be. I believe that the church has been cast out of the church by orthodox members who in no way approached their standard of moral and spiritual life."

He said that the church is being attacked by the wretched competitive system of the denominations which is due very largely to the narrowness of the doctrinal belief is the essence of Christianity.

"The business of the church these many centuries has been not to save the world, but to save a few individuals and let the world go to rack and ruin. # MISS GOGGIN NOW IN DOCTOR'S CARE

OF CREMATE BODY OF BRAIN SUICIDE

ALAMEDA, July 25.—Dr. E. M. Keyes of this city and Dr. H. W. Emerson of Centerville, operated today on Miss Kathryn Goggin, resetting broken bones and dressing other injuries sustained by Miss Goggin Sunday when she fell down a sixty-foot bluff near Boulder Creek while gathering ferns. Her condition is critical, but it is believed that she will recover. Both arms are broken and there is a serious head injury. The girl would undoubtedly have drowned as she lay unconscious in the creek at the foot of the cliff had not her cousin, Albert Cupid, held her head above water until help arrived.

Miss Goggin and Cupid were attempting to gather ferns near the high bluff overlooking the creek. The bluff suddenly gave way and both were thrown into the water. The girl was placed with broken bones and cuts and bruises and immediately lapsed into unconsciousness. Young Cupid, though badly bruised, was not seriously hurt. He was placed on the creek bed by auto from the Big Bay area. Thomas Shumato and police went to the rescue. Goggin was placed on the creek bed on a rope. With a rope and some sticks he made a sling in which the unconscious girl was placed and hauled to the top of the bluff. Cupid and Goggin made their way up the bluff, as much as possible, by raising the girl to the road. At Boulder Creek medical aid was secured and later the injured girl was brought to the hospital in this city. Miss Goggin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Goggin of 2755 San Francisco street, Alameda, prominent Alameda Elk and is a leading official in the San Francisco office of the London Assurance Company.

"Bloomer Girls" Were Boys, Say Police

SPOKANE, Wash., July 25.—Oh, bon-bon!

Police asserted today that five comely members of the bloomer girls' baseball club, which has been barnstorming through the Northwest, are not girls at all. They're boys.

An anxious Sacramento mother applied the frijolitos and brought a charge to the heart of those men who mayhap took opera glasses with them to the bleachers to see the girls in action. She wired police to interview her son, Albert Miller, 16, third baseman of the feminine nine, and send him home.

Detectives found Albert and four similar "girls" at a hotel here. The girls are out! Miller has brown hair, blue eyes and a shapely ankle. He made a hit in bloomers. And there's other giggling infielders with their winsome glances who looked so cute with ordinary doggone American kids.

Aw, pshaw!

ACUTE AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may also be due to cold, but that remedy has been found to be a quack in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism is a vast field of quackery. The only remedy that has been found to be a quack is the use of quinine. The only remedy that has been found to be a quack is the use of quinine. The only remedy that has been found to be a quack is the use of quinine.

POLICEMAN KILLED

Japanese Murders Officer and Is Shot in Turn at Seattle.

SEATTLE, July 25.—Police Sergeant John Weedin and I. Hiro, a Japanese porter employed in a drug store owned by Logan Billingsley, who has been arrested several times for violating the prohibition law, were killed today in a shooting which was dangerously wounded. The shooting occurred in front of Billingsley's warehouse at Ninth and Westlake avenues, which had been the scene of a liquor raid late in the day when the police confiscated fifteen oil cans filled with whisky.

At the time of the shooting Willey was taking Sergeant Weedin home in an automobile. As they passed the Billingsley warehouse two men ran toward the car, one of them shouting, "Look out, look out!" The Japanese officer, who was a policeman, and asked Hiro to hand over his weapon. Without replying the Japanese, who was in the shadow of the building, and shooting his pistol. The Japanese was shot in the chest and died at the city hospital within an hour.

Hiro, shortly before he died, told Chief of Police Beckingham that Billingsley had given him the pistol and told him to keep it with him in the warehouse. He said they thought the policemen were robbers. Billingsley denied having given the pistol to Hiro, and said he did not even know that the Japanese was armed. He also said that preparations were under way to start a drug store in the building, in which he was to have an interest, and that Hiro had been sleeping there on his vacation.

John Weedin, the dead policeman, was 46 years old, married and the father of nine children. He had been a policeman since 1893.

Logan Billingsley, proprietor of several drug stores here and central figure in a number of clashes with the police, who accuse him of being a wholesale dealer in narcotics, and his father, R. W. Billingsley, were arrested at noon following the fatal shooting here last night of Police Sergeant John Weedin and I. Suehiro, a Japanese watchman at Billingsley's warehouse.

Following a conference between Chief of Police Beckingham, the prosecutor and Mayor Gill, the arrest of the Japanese was ordered. He also charged has yet been placed against them.

Minister, 82 Years Old, Is Eloper

Bride Is 75; Did Not Want 'Fuss'

FRUITVALE, July 25.—Married three times in church with the usual fuss and ceremony attending such functions, Rev. James Sunderland, aged 82 years, 1684 Hopkins street, decided his fourth wedding should be more romantic and unconventional, and so eloped with Miss Mary Ham, aged 75 years, to Monterey. The couple returned home today and astonished their friends with the announcement of their wedding, which took place Friday.

The couple said they did not want the usual fuss over their wedding and decided to elude their friends. They accordingly "ran away" and were wed under the most romantic conditions. The bride is a sister of Rev. Sunderland's third wife, who died some time ago. Miss Ham has been keeping house for the aged bridegroom since her sister's death.

Rev. Sunderland is a retired Baptist minister and has lived here for many years.

POSTAL SAVINGS DEPOSITS GROW

June Records Show Net Gain of More Than Thirty-eight Millions.

NEW YORK, July 25.—June records for postal savings deposits were compiled last month when a net gain of more than $38,000,000 was rolled up, quadrupling the net increase for June, 1915, according to figures made public at the New York postoffice.

The gains were general throughout the country, notably in the smaller industrial centers. Postmasters attribute their success to the fact that the country-wide prosperity of wage earners and to the legislation of May 18 last, which increased the limit on deposits from $100 to $1000 a month.

Among the cities showing the largest gains in June were: Brooklyn, $22,205; Detroit, $16,262; Chicago, $123,042; Boston, $91,069; Pittsburgh, $88,304; Cleveland, $74,764; Buffalo, $52,946; Milwaukee, $48,497; Philadelphia, $47,068; Portland, Ore., $46,448; Newark, N. J., $40,837; St. Louis, $39,139; Kansas City, $32,012; Los Angeles, $38,406; San Francisco, $27,724; St. Paul, $27,550; Columbus, Ohio, $22,766; Tacoma, $22,430; Toledo, $20,772; San Diego, $18,631.

On June 30 there were 7701 postoffices according to deposits in the United States, Alaska, Porto Rico and Hawaii, and the number of depositors approximated 600 with $86,000,000 standing to their credit. Eight offices, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, St. Paul, San Francisco and Portland, Ore., have passed the $1,000,000 mark, and these held approximated 42 per cent of all deposits.

Goldman Meeting Quiet in Berkeley

BERKELEY, July 25.—Several hundred people who wanted to see the Berkeley police stop Emma Goldman from speaking at Wilkins hall last night were disappointed or pleased, according to their sympathies, when, with no opposition, Miss Goldman delivered her scheduled address on "What Is Wrong With Our Educational System."

The announcement of Mayor S. C. Irving that Miss Goldman was not invited to Berkeley and that she would not be allowed to speak drew a crowd of curious, who stayed to the lecture hall, and the lecture was given quietly.

Miss Goldman arranged for the present school system, which, she says, dwarfs the world by pushing him into channels for which he has no desire to go, instead of allowing him along the lines of his ambition. In this she echoed several speeches made during the recent High School Teachers' convention at the University of California.

CABINET IS THREATENED WITH BREAK

David Lloyd-George and Asquith Are Ready to Quit Tasks

LONDON, July 25.—The coalition cabinet was endangered today by the Irish question. David Lloyd-George, minister of war and originator of the compromise plan for settlement of the Irish problem, was quoted as having offered to resign in view of the failure of the cabinet to acquiesce in his proposals to the Irish nationalists.

Premier Asquith was understood to be ready also to step down if Lloyd-George retired. Threat to submit the question to a vote of the people in a general election was freely made during the Commons debate.

The only hope of averting such a break lay today in the chance that the Irish nationalists would consent to further negotiations and with John Redmond, the party's leader, demanding immediate action and his followers hurling charges of breach of faith at the ministry, it was admitted this hope was a faint one.

MIGHT WIN ELECTIONS.

Some London newspapers today expressed the belief, however, that if the break came and a general election were called it would result in support of the cabinet's course, the nationalists having lost confidence of many Irishmen through their willingness to treat in a compromise plan. Such a victory for the cabinet would, however, it was pointed out, still leave the Irish question suspended.

The situation today was that the cabinet confessed its purpose not to introduce a home rule amending bill until there was a complete agreement among all the Irish parties and appealed to the nationalists to endeavor to obtain such an agreement. Retention in the parliament of the nationalist representation in unadmitted numbers was the main point which prevented agreement in the cabinet on the bill and among the various Irish parties.

One other point which gave anxiety was the open threat voiced by John Redmond in the Commons debate that the Irish members held themselves free to exercise their individual judgment in criticising the government's course, not only in domestic affairs but in the conduct of the war. It was admitted that if the Irish deliberately seek, as this threat indicates, to air British conduct of the war on the floor, they may seriously embarrass British success in the present great offensive.

Irish Nationalists Fight Compromise Program of Government

GLOOMY VIEW.

London newspaper editorials took a gloomy view of the crisis.

"It is humiliation to us in the face of our friends and our foes at a time when we claim to be fighting the battle of the world," said the Daily News declared. "It means that the sympathy of America is lost to us and that the whole sentiment of the dominions is against us."

"Now we have the old stone tied once more round our neck in a heavier and more dangerous shape than ever," said the Daily Telegraph. "We shall be fortunate if it does not hamper our progress at every step through deep waters which have yet to be traversed."

NEW YORK, July 25.—June records for postal savings deposits were compiled last month when a net gain of more than $38,000,000 was rolled up, quadrupling the net increase for June, 1915, according to figures made public at the New York postoffice.

The gains were general throughout the country, notably in the smaller industrial centers. Postmasters attribute their success to the fact that the country-wide prosperity of wage earners and to the legislation of May 18 last, which increased the limit on deposits from $100 to $1000 a month.

Among the cities showing the largest gains in June were: Brooklyn, $22,205; Detroit, $16,262; Chicago, $123,042; Boston, $91,069; Pittsburgh, $88,304; Cleveland, $74,764; Buffalo, $52,946; Milwaukee, $48,497; Philadelphia, $47,068; Portland, Ore., $46,448; Newark, N. J., $40,837; St. Louis, $39,139; Kansas City, $32,012; Los Angeles, $38,406; San Francisco, $27,724; St. Paul, $27,550; Columbus, Ohio, $22,766; Tacoma, $22,430; Toledo, $20,772; San Diego, $18,631.

On June 30 there were 7701 postoffices according to deposits in the United States, Alaska, Porto Rico and Hawaii, and the number of depositors approximated 600 with $86,000,000 standing to their credit. Eight offices, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, St. Paul, San Francisco and Portland, Ore., have passed the $1,000,000 mark, and these held approximated 42 per cent of all deposits.

Goldman Meeting Quiet in Berkeley

BERKELEY, July 25.—Several hundred people who wanted to see the Berkeley police stop Emma Goldman from speaking at Wilkins hall last night were disappointed or pleased, according to their sympathies, when, with no opposition, Miss Goldman delivered her scheduled address on "What Is Wrong With Our Educational System."

The announcement of Mayor S. C. Irving that Miss Goldman was not invited to Berkeley and that she would not be allowed to speak drew a crowd of curious, who stayed to the lecture hall, and the lecture was given quietly.

Miss Goldman arranged for the present school system, which, she says, dwarfs the world by pushing him into channels for which he has no desire to go, instead of allowing him along the lines of his ambition. In this she echoed several speeches made during the recent High School Teachers' convention at the University of California.

CABINET IS THREATENED WITH BREAK

David Lloyd-George and Asquith Are Ready to Quit Tasks

LONDON, July 25.—The coalition cabinet was endangered today by the Irish question. David Lloyd-George, minister of war and originator of the compromise plan for settlement of the Irish problem, was quoted as having offered to resign in view of the failure of the cabinet to acquiesce in his proposals to the Irish nationalists.

Premier Asquith was understood to be ready also to step down if Lloyd-George retired. Threat to submit the question to a vote of the people in a general election was freely made during the Commons debate.

The only hope of averting such a break lay today in the chance that the Irish nationalists would consent to further negotiations and with John Redmond, the party's leader, demanding immediate action and his followers hurling charges of breach of faith at the ministry, it was admitted this hope was a faint one.

MIGHT WIN ELECTIONS.

Some London newspapers today expressed the belief, however, that if the break came and a general election were called it would result in support of the cabinet's course, the nationalists having lost confidence of many Irishmen through their willingness to treat in a compromise plan. Such a victory for the cabinet would, however, it was pointed out, still leave the Irish question suspended.

The situation today was that the cabinet confessed its purpose not to introduce a home rule amending bill until there was a complete agreement among all the Irish parties and appealed to the nationalists to endeavor to obtain such an agreement. Retention in the parliament of the nationalist representation in unadmitted numbers was the main point which prevented agreement in the cabinet on the bill and among the various Irish parties.

One other point which gave anxiety was the open threat voiced by John Redmond in the Commons debate that the Irish members held themselves free to exercise their individual judgment in criticising the government's course, not only in domestic affairs but in the conduct of the war. It was admitted that if the Irish deliberately seek, as this threat indicates, to air British conduct of the war on the floor, they may seriously embarrass British success in the present great offensive.

Irish Nationalists Fight Compromise Program of Government

GLOOMY VIEW.

London newspaper editorials took a gloomy view of the crisis.

"It is humiliation to us in the face of our friends and our foes at a time when we claim to be fighting the battle of the world," said the Daily News declared. "It means that the sympathy of America is lost to us and that the whole sentiment of the dominions is against us."

"Now we have the old stone tied once more round our neck in a heavier and more dangerous shape than ever," said the Daily Telegraph. "We shall be fortunate if it does not hamper our progress at every step through deep waters which have yet to be traversed."

Minister, 82 Years Old, Is Eloper

Bride Is 75; Did Not Want 'Fuss'

FRUITVALE, July 25.—Married three times in church with the usual fuss and ceremony attending such functions, Rev. James Sunderland, aged 82 years, 1684 Hopkins street, decided his fourth wedding should be more romantic and unconventional, and so eloped with Miss Mary Ham, aged 75 years, to Monterey. The couple returned home today and astonished their friends with the announcement of their wedding, which took place Friday.

The couple said they did not want the usual fuss over their wedding and decided to elude their friends. They accordingly "ran away" and were wed under the most romantic conditions. The bride is a sister of Rev. Sunderland's third wife, who died some time ago. Miss Ham has been keeping house for the aged bridegroom since her sister's death.

Rev. Sunderland is a retired Baptist minister and has lived here for many years.

ALAMEDA PLANS SHIP CELEBRATION

Laying of Keel to Be Observed
With Ceremony at Plant.

Alameda city officials and the Alameda Chamber of Commerce will take part in the ceremonies incidental to the laying of the keel at the Union Iron Works Thursday of the first of a fleet of five 10,000-ton steamers to be built at the Alameda plant. Secretary Edward Silver held a conference with the Union Iron Works' officials this afternoon to plan for a fitting observance of an occasion fraught with significance for Alameda.

The order for these vessels was received by the Union Iron Works before the commencement of the Alameda plant. In opening negotiations for the leasing of the city's property adjoining the plant, the Iron Works officials said this fleet of new ships would be built at the Alameda plant and would be constructed as rapidly as possible. They are the largest ships to be constructed on the east side of the bay and probably the largest freighters yet to be built on the Pacific coast.

Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland has also been invited to attend the keel laying ceremony. The commencement of work on the first of the several new craft comes at an opportune time for the keel laying will emphasize the importance of the city's shipbuilding industry and the assistance the residents of Alameda have in their power, and the best possible assistance is to carry the special election on August 8, which will amend the city charter so the city council can lease the city's land to the plant.

Hayward Men Plan Market Association

HAYWARD, July 25.—A strong branch of the State Market Association, of which Harris Weinstein is organizer, will likely be formed here, following a recent meeting held for the purpose of securing local poultrymen and others as members of the association, and related the interest shown elsewhere in the work of the new organization. Poultry and other producers in Sonoma county, especially they said, had joined the association in large numbers. Membership blanks have been circulated in this district and the result of the local membership campaign will be made known at a meeting to be held soon.

REPORTS BURGLARY.
The police have been notified by Mrs. F. Annalla, 685 Clara street, that someone entered the house owned by Frederick Baker, at Walter and Clara streets, and made away with many articles of value in the place. According to Mrs. Annalla, the house was robbed of a safe, a jewelry box, a list of stolen articles has been made, the occupant being absent from the city.

Arms Stacked for Tea at St. Francis Citizen Soldiers Forget Rules of War

By C. H. BAILY.
U. S. MILITARY TRAINING CAMP, MONTREY, July 25.—It would not be fair to mention their names, but two Oakland men failed in the first duty of a soldier in San Francisco last Saturday after the preparedness parade and deserted their rifles at the St. Francis hotel. They were not alone in this heinous military crime, though, because men representative of several other California cities were equally guilty.

It seems that right after the parade a little party of Monterey rookies decided to visit the St. Francis before going to the Third and Townsend streets depot and leaving their rifles and other equipment until the special trains started back to this camp.

They stacked arms at the St. Francis, went into the tea room to get a cup of tea, or something like that, to refresh themselves, and then went on a reconnaissance expedition about town, absent-mindedly neglecting to take their rifles with them.

Two minutes before the special train started back here the party rushed up to it breathlessly and climbed aboard. And not a man of them thought of thought about those rifles stacked in San Francisco's select hostelry until yesterday morning. Then they "fessed up" to their company commanders, got a noble calling down from the regular army, and the party have decided to eschew tea for the balance of their stay here.

Each picture will have been drawn to represent a title—one of the titles in the official list of book titles which will be published in The TRIBUNE, at the rate of about seventy-five titles each day. (P. T.—Under the heading "The Picture Game" the Tribune will publish a list of titles, each title only, as any picture represents a title or name. The picture will have nothing to do with the contents of any book, or anything between the covers of any book.)

Participants will look through the lists of titles published in the paper, and

Little things like mislaid rifles were forgotten today, however, in the work on hand, for, as a matter of fact, rifle juggling is a small part of today's program.

They are digging trenches today, all kinds of trenches, from the modern infantry fire trench to bomb and splinter proofs. Also, they are putting up wire entanglements and planting mines, so that an enemy cannot capture any trench the civilian rookies have so laboriously excavated.

AVIATION.
The aviation section is doing a lot of good work, too, and its motors have been heard whizzing nearly all day, with now and then a monoplane rising over the top of the trees a half a mile from camp, where the aviators hold forth, circling for a while and then dropping to earth again.

The first guard mount for the civilian soldiers was held last evening. Company A, the company made up of the younger men, starting the work hereafter will be a regular daily feature of camp life. All the guard duty so far done has been by the soldiers of the regular army stationed on the ground as troops of instruction.

U. S. A. T. Smith, Field Artillery, U. S. A., gave a lecture late this afternoon on the work of the Field Artillery arm of the service, and last evening, at the Del Monte hotel, Dr. Ford A. Campbell, meteorologist for the United States weather bureau, gave a lecture on the assistance given military aviation by the meteorological section of the weather bureau.

Trench digging continues tomorrow, and outpost duty and outpost patrols will form a large part of tomorrow's program.

WINS RIGHT TO STAY IN OFFICE

German-English Banker, Center of Queer Row, Victorious.

LONDON, July 25.—The Court of Appeals decided today that there is no question of the right of Sir Edgar Speyer to remain on the roll of privy council. This ruling upholds the decision of the lower court in favor of Sir Edgar Speyer, partner in the Speyer Banking Firm of London, New York and Frankfurt-on-the-Main is a British citizen of German birth and parentage. At the outbreak of the war he was the subject of violent attacks in England on account of his German origin. His enemies openly charged him with disloyalty but he was warmly defended by Premier Asquith.

In May, 1915, Sir Edgar resigned his membership in the Privy Council and asked for the revocation of his baronetcy. The College of Arms decided that there was no way in which the banker could divest himself of his title. The question of his privy councilship remained in abeyance until November, 1915, when the Anti-German League brought action in the courts to force his removal from the council. The present decision is the outcome of that suit.

Auto Diana Slays Big Bear in Road

BERLIN, N. H., July 25.—Mrs. George Phelan of this town claims to be the first woman in New Hampshire to shoot a big black bear from an automobile. The exploit occurred in the road in Pinkham's notch.

Mrs. Phelan and her husband, George M. Phelan, were driving from Nashua to their home, when the animal, which was of good size, was in the road in front of them. The car was stopped and Mrs. Phelan, who always has a rifle with her when traveling through the mountains, sent a bullet into the bear's brain.

The Phelans tumbled the bear into the truck and brought it here.

WIFE MURDERER HAUNTED BY FACE

St. Louis Man Surrenders to
Los Angeles Police and Pleads Insanity.

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—"I want to be punished and I will be glad when it is over. I killed my wife, who was a good girl, but I did not know what I was doing. I was out of my head. I never should have been released from the insane asylum, where I spent twenty years of my life."

Covering his face with his hands to hide any trace of emotion he might feel, C. H. Birgin, who gave up to the police yesterday, saying that he had killed his wife in St. Louis, today declared his anxiety to be taken back to Missouri to pay the penalty for his crime.

Police officers yesterday were inclined to believe Birgin's story that he slew his wife a month or so ago, came from the vagaries of a disordered mind, received a telegram from Chief of Police William Young of St. Louis, which read:

"Hold Birgin by all means. Wanted here for wife murder. Am sending photograph for positive identification."

"I see my wife in my dreams, and she tells me she is far happier where she is than she was with me. This is a terrible thing, and I have no desire to escape paying the toll the law exacts for my crime," said Birgin.

BRITISH LOST 1519 OFFICERS IN JUNE

LONDON, July 25.—Casualty lists issued by the war office show that during June the British army lost 423 officers killed, 1032 wounded and 614 missing—a total of 1519. These figures bring the aggregate losses to date to 29,424, of which number 8997 have been killed or died, 18,456 wounded and 1971 missing.

Heavy fighting around Ypres caused losses among officers in the Canadian contingent of 109 killed, 304 wounded and fifty-one missing. Of the Australians, fourteen were killed and thirty-two wounded.

Brigadier-General Kirk and Mercer were killed and Brigadier-General Williams was reported to be a prisoner.

Hypnotism Not Via Wireless Police Advise Woman, Fearing Influence

The menace of hypnotic influence exercised over her by an Italian she had known in Sacramento drove Mrs. H. F. Haynes, 698 Forty-seventh street, to seek refuge with the police last night. Lieutenant Bert L. Curtis listened to the woman's story and consulted a book on mesmerism. He then informed her that it would be impossible for the man to exercise his power while she was under the protection of officers unless he actually came to Oakland.

He notified the police of the fact if the man made his appearance. She was satisfied with this explanation and allowed herself to be taken to her home.

DISCUSS WATERFRONT LEASE.

The Fitchburg Social and Improvement Club held a well-attended meeting at the rooms of the club, 722 East Fourteenth street, last evening for the purpose of hearing a statement of the proposition of F. M. Smith and a group of his associates regarding the leasing of the city's tide lands and western waterfront.

Udo Lande of the Western Waterfront League, El Edworts outlined the proposition, claiming that the coming election, on August 22, is not to make a lease, but to enable the city to make it if it so desired. The speaker declared that out of the $5,000,000 proposed for improvement would be spent on city land.

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has lovely hair, while the most popular count their curls as their chief beauty? In fact (this is a secret), many are leading ladies just because of their attractive locks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that by pulling out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or makeshift, but with a simple mixture which they make up for themselves by putting a teaspoonful of canthrox (which they get from the druggist), in a cup of hot water and applying this instead of soap. After its use their hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness is delightful, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Advertisement.

Hairs Will Vanish After This Treatment

(Toilet Helps.)
You can keep your skin free from hair or fluff by the occasional use of plain deodorant soap. Using it you need have no fear of marring or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered deodorant with water. Rub it on the hair and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real deodorant.—Advertisement.

THE ILLEGAL BLACK-LIST.

This newspaper was the first, and so far as we have been able to observe, the only newspaper on the Pacific Coast to call attention to the so-called Allied Trade Conference held recently in Paris and to point out the certain effect the aims of the conference would have on the commerce and business of the United States.

Our prediction has been verified, earlier than we expected, by the actions of the British government in "black-listing" more than eighty American firms under the British trading-with-the-enemy law. All of these firms are strictly and legally American concerns and most of their members are American citizens, some of them bearing German names. We have previously commented in these columns upon the effect of the "black-list" order; the thing now to be considered is what shall the United States do in regard to it.

In operation the "black-list" will not mean that all the firms cannot trade, not only with German, but with other countries, but there are enough firms which will be so affected as to make this an essential result of the black-list principle. And this automatically produces the query:

"Do Americans derive their right to trade from the British government?"

If this question is answered affirmatively, then we must accept the British trade "black-list" as one of the qualifications of American freedom and independence.

But Americans do not believe, and surely do not intend that England shall be conceded the right to issue permits to American commercial firms to trade abroad, specifying who shall be their customers and with whom they shall not deal.

There may be a way prescribed by law of dealing with this unjust, unreasonable and illegal action of Great Britain. The Department of Justice is reported to be considering proceedings under the Sherman anti-trust law, and the Senate has taken cognizance of the matter. But there is also an informal method at the disposal of the United States which also would be lawful under the circumstances. We are entirely justified in resorting to retaliatory measures.

These may be carried out in two ways: All American firms might agree not to trade with England so long as a "black-list" against an American firm is enforced. Had they taken full notice of the conduct and the tendencies of Great Britain with regard to neutral trade they would now have been prepared to make such cooperation effective at once. In the second place the national government may place an absolute embargo on the export of American products to Great Britain and against the import of British products. This would be done in case of war between the two countries and England has shown by her "black-list" that her commercial warfare against the United States is quite as ruthless as her armed warfare in Europe. It demonstrates once more that commercial and armed conflict are, in principle, but indistinctly separated.

Unless England yields promptly to the protests that surely will be made against "black-listing" of American firms, more drastic measures should, and of necessity may, be resorted to. That England has been palpably foolish in promulgating a "black-list" should not lead us into doubt as to whether we should refuse emphatically to tolerate it.

It is a principle of international law, accepted and frequently applied by Great Britain, that the domicile of a merchant, and not his natural allegiance, determines the neutral or unneutral character of his trade. The Supreme Court of the United States, as long ago as 1813, held that a Spanish subject who had come to the United States in time of peace to carry on trade and remained here engaged in trade after war had been declared between Spain and England, was an American merchant by law of domicile, his neutral character depending solely upon his domicile. There is no distinction between alien merchants who were here in trade before the war started and American citizens who are foreign traders. Under maritime law they are entitled to the prerogatives and liable to the hardships of American citizens. The United States can not differentiate between them and Great Britain should not be permitted to do so.

France was able to negotiate another loan of $100,000,000 with New York bankers, but the terms were hard. The syndicate gets the bonds at 96 and sells them to the public at 98. They bear interest at five percent and are to be redeemed at a premium of from one-half to one and one-half percent. The unique feature is that France must put up $120,000,000 in securities to guarantee the loan and these securities are in the main those of neutral governments. The notes of Norway, Sweden, Holland, Denmark, Brazil and Argentina have been mobilized and pledged in this country in order to obtain the credit.

LEGISLATING INSINCERITY.

The insincerity of President Wilson's idea of a non-partisan tariff commission and of the plank which he personally drafted for the St. Louis Democratic platform was heartlessly exposed in the lower chamber of Congress last week. The Democratic leaders in the House gave one of the finest examples in legislative history of how to emasculate a bill of all its effectiveness.

The people of the country have for a long time been strongly in favor of a non-partisan, scientific commission to deal with the tariff question, and in President Taft's administration such a commission was created. The view taken by the Republican majority of Mr. Taft's regime was that such a commission would be the most important in the government. In this respect they merely reflected the viewpoint of all the citizens who gave the matter serious thought. Mr. Wilson killed the Taft commission and in the beginning of this, the third year of his administration, when the time approached to look after political munitions for the coming presidential campaign, he revived the idea as his own.

But how did the House express itself regarding the importance, the freedom from political strings and the effectiveness of the commission? It reduced the salaries of the members of the commission from $12,000 a year to $7500. The salaries of the Federal Reserve Board are $12,000 and of the Federal Trade and Interstate Commerce Commission $10,000 each. This was a vote against ability in the personnel of the tariff commission.

If a tariff commission is to be of any service whatever, it must be permanent, for it is obvious that some investigations must take several years to complete and if the commission is to be reliable and efficient it must keep abreast with economic and trade conditions throughout the world. What degree of permanence did the House vote to give it? It refused to make permanent the appropriation for its maintenance, and so each year the commission will have to go to Congress and ask for funds. The House delegated to the appropriations committee full power to destroy the commission at pleasure. The people wanted and the country demanded a permanent non-partisan tariff commission and is offered an unattractive campaign bait.

The bill is now in the Senate and it remains to be seen whether that body will approve the subterfuge of the House. Will it restore the highly desirable features of a salary to attract competent experts and permanency, or will it accept the viewpoint of the House—that the commission is an instrument mainly for use as political capital?

Representative Edward L. Hamilton of Michigan, in Congress, delivered himself of a few observations on political party promises as compared with fulfillments. "We have been in the habit of thinking of a political platform as a more or less definite statement of principles on paper," he said, "but the Democratic platform is now and for a long time has been a cordially cold human document in a frock coat, constantly subject to the vagaries of changing circumstances." Mr. Hamilton, being an accomplished rhetorician, indulged in the mixed metaphor intentionally. He was in a sympathetic mood toward his subject.

Typical news from the border: The First Virginia regiment has a splendid machine gun company, but no guns. It has twenty-five transport wagons with harness in first class condition, but no horses. The national guard was called out six weeks ago. Many organizations not only were not prepared, but evidently find it impossible to get ready for active service.

NEW TYPE OF COLLEGE PRESIDENT.

(From the Seattle Times.)

Dartmouth College has set a new example in the selection of college presidents. It has been the custom of educational institutions to choose their executive heads from the ranks of the professors. Years ago it was thought essential that he should also be a clergyman. In more recent years some attention has been paid somewhat to the business qualifications of a prospective president as well as to his standing as an educator, but the latter was still deemed essential.

Ernest Martin Hopkins, the new president of Dartmouth, however, was selected from the commercial and industrial walk of life. Although a graduate of Dartmouth and possessing an intimate knowledge of the administration of his alma mater, by reason of having served at one time as secretary to its former president, he comes directly from the avenues of business.

For some years he has been associated with such concerns as the Western Electric and the Bell Telephone Companies as expert adviser on organization, the improvement in efficiency in production and treatment of employees. He is essentially a business man and his administration may reveal to Dartmouth and other institutions of learning a way to render a better and broader and more effective service in their relations to the practical side of life.

At any rate, his selection is a frank recognition not only of the fact that the administration of a college has become a business proposition, but of the fact also that the institutions of higher education must get closer to the business, commercial and industrial problems of men. Culture in this age means more than knowledge of letters and science and the arts. It means a practical application of these worthy attainments.

NOTES and COMMENT

Seems to be a good time for San Francisco to clean the city of lawlessness of all kinds.

The world's war debt is figured out as about eighteen billion dollars. A heavy impost for humanity to pay off through peaceful pursuits.

Auto races continue to yield their harvest. Two killed at Portland last Sunday.

"The frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder is in the shock." J. Whitcomb Riley, good Hoosier poet, has passed over the divide.

"De facto net closes about Villa bandits." It is not overwhelmingly apparent what a de facto net is, but no matter, so it is strong in the mesh.

A Sacramento man was jailed for failure to provide for his children. Something else is coming to him from the righteous law. There were sixteen of them.

The United States Trade Board is to probe the rise in the cost of paper. It is not at all impossible that war exigencies are made to cover a multitude of trade extortions.

"Oakland prepares to welcome Joy." All communities welcome joy, but ours is to get glad over the arrival of Henry of that name, president of the Lincoln Highway Association.

There is apparently a difference of opinion about the fighting on the war fronts. Berlin dispatches say the British attacks are fruitless, while accounts from London tell of the miles gained on the battle lines.

A new sort of miscreant is the one who throws acid on autos. It is not at all apparent where he derives enjoyment from such action, but there is no accounting for some people's idea of fun.

The Rev. Joseph Sibley denounces the anarchistic frothings so frequently delivered from soap boxes and sometimes heard at mass meetings as the "talk of the jungle," which is apt, indeed.

Alameda paid a heavy tribute in Saturday's tragedy, furnishing half the fatalities. It may indicate the interest of its people in patriotic demonstrations that so many of the victims came from the little city.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Students living two miles or more from the Placer High school will be allowed one cent a mile daily for attendance. Colfax, Newcastle, Penryn and Loomis young folks attend this school.—Auburn Republican.

The horticultural commissioner of Imperial county reports the shipment of 4057 cars of cantaloupes, of which 5100 crates were condemned; twenty-nine cars of grapes, shipped East; one car was stopped because the sugar test did not reach 17 per cent, as required.—Holtville Tribune.

Sixteen more convicts were brought up from San Quentin prison Monday to work on the state highway in the northern part of the county. They now have 155 convicts working in the two camps.—Willits News.

There are a number of Sherlock Holmes in and around Richmond. Some of them work out into the interior if they scent "ready money." Some of them wear rubber soles to minimize the sound when in-footing on the hard pavements. This has no reference to the political candidates.—Richmond Terminal.

The 11,000 acres located in the southern part of Sutter county which are planted to beans are looking fine. Of this acreage 2000 was planted by the company, about 6000 on the company's land under lease, and 3000 or 4000 on lands privately owned in the district.—Marysville Appeal.

The editor of the Blade has a letter from back in Iowa which tells of one county in that state where ninety prominent Democrats have signed a statement of the effect that they are disgusted with Mr. Wilson and his Underwood tariff, and that, simply as statement to the effect that they are going to vote for Hughes.—Santa Ana Blade.

The California Almond Growers' Exchange reports that the almond crop on the south producing orchards will vary from one-half to three-quarters of the normal. There will be some new acreage come into bearing this year which will increase the total tonnage slightly.—San Luis Obispo Tribune.

SEX STRIFE.

Historians tell us that the Crusades, designed to win the tomb of Christ, promoted commercial intercourse between east and west. Germany, setting out to assert the male ideal, has given an immense jog to the feminine. But the price would have staggered the optimism of a Pangloss. Hoti, whose house must be burned down before he could taste crackling, roasted his pig infinitely cheaper.

The loss of legions of young men will increase the number of spinsters, who will clamor with increasing outspokenness for a revised sex ethic. The entry of women into so many occupations will produce female blacklegs and gravely agitate the trade unions. There will be friction along the line at those points where women have not yet stood—these embrace in England the whole of the legal profession, the higher walks of the civil service and even of medicine, not to mention parliament and government.

The end of the war will bring, not peace, but sex strife, added to the inevitable economic discontents. For the social landscape cannot be transformed for woman without changing man's situation, too. When the valleys are exalted the hills are apt to subside. By an odd coincidence the female chapter of the "History of the War" winds up with a picture of a woman "Making a Doll's House." That was, it appears, not only from Ibsen, an exclusively male occupation. What sinister symbolism lurks in this climax? Is the man to be henceforward the pampered puppet?—Israel Zangwill, in the Metropolitan Magazine.

PREPARE ALSO AGAINST THE ENEMY WITHIN!

BRITAIN'S FOOLISH BLACKLIST

Law and customs confer upon nations as upon individuals, the right to do many foolish things. The government of Great Britain appears to be exercising such a right in making public the names of eighty-three firms "domiciled" in the United States with which British subjects are forbidden to transact business.

To all Americans the British blacklist is primarily offensive because it represents a flagrant employment of the boycott, a weapon which opinion in this country has consistently outlawed, and for the use of which offenders have been punished in several conspicuous instances. As a part of her war against Germany, Great Britain seeks to destroy the foreign commerce of four-score American corporations, with no other excuse than that those concerns are either German firms "in disguise" or have been guilty of doing business with Germany. The whole episode has the appearance of such petty interference with obscure neutrals that many persons will wonder how a great Power can bring itself publicly to undertake it. To some it will suggest that this blacklisting of individual shippers is merely the English way of preparing the ground for some undisclosed policy of trade restriction on the seas. In view, however, of the impunity with which neutral ships and cargoes have been seized and held in English ports, the need of resorting now to devious ways is not apparent.

With all the waters surrounding her enemies already firmly controlled, despite the Deutschland's spectacular cruise—and with the imports of Holland and Scandinavia under strict, if lawless, regulation, England inflicts an unwelcome and seemingly gratuitous irritation upon neutrals by blacklisting such of their exporters as she suspects of having business relations with the enemy.

In its anticipated protest, the State Department will doubtless remind Great Britain, quite forcibly if indirectly, that the cause of the Entente Powers is likely to be prejudiced here by the enforcement of a blacklist which, while it affects directly only a handful of Americans, is sure to offend thousands of others because of the unjust and unfriendly principle which it embodies.

Business men and others on this side of the Atlantic will be disposed to wonder whether the British blacklist of neutrals can be regarded as an indication of the sort of economic warfare the Entente Powers propose to wage with special vigor after the military struggle comes to an end. If friends are to be hit indiscriminately this soon in an effort to inflict what may be, at best, a slight injury upon the avowed enemy, how much less mercy or consideration can neutrals anticipate when the heralded economic warfare of the Allies shall later be fully entered upon?

British folly will be entirely to blame if neutralism in America should suddenly veer and begin to hope for a somewhat different outcome of the present war than has heretofore appeared most popular with the people.—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

IN MEMORIAM.

(To Those Who Fell in Line.)

Let the marching hundreds come
 To the sound of muffled drum;
 Let them gaze upon the spot
 Where the victims of the plot
 Died the death that heroes die.
 Not less well could you and I
 Serve our country's cause today:
 Not in vain this bloodshed. Nay!
 Now a Nation's peace to win,
 We must guard without, WITHIN;
 They who fell have proved the need;
 Let "Preparedness" be our creed.
 Mothers, fathers, bring your sons!
 Would you have them food for guns—
 Helpless, in defense untaught?
 From the crime may good be wrought,
 Blood thus spilled is spilled in fee
 That our country may be FREE!
 —Torrey Connor.

"GRINGO" OLD SPANISH WORD.

In El Diccionario Nacional por Ramon Joachim Dominguez, Madrid, 1847, the following appears:

Gringo—Voy usado familiarmente en esta frase, para hablar en gringo, en vez de hablar en griego, en una lengua oscura, etc., que no se entiende.

This means in English:
 Gringo—Word familiarly used in the popular phrase "to speak in gringo" instead of to speak in Greek, i. e., in a language unintelligible, obscure, and that is not understood.

In P. Esteban de Terreros y Pando's "Diccionario Castellano," published in Madrid in 1787. See Vol. II, p. 240, col. 1: "Gringos—Llamamos a Malaga a los extranjeros, que tienen clara especie de acento, que los priva de una locucion facil y natural Castellana; y en Madrid dan el mismo, y por la misma causa con particularidad a los Irlandeses."

Roughly translated, this means: "Gringos—The name given in Malaga to those foreigners who have a certain accent which prevents them from speaking Spanish fluently and naturally; and in Madrid the same term is used for the same reason, especially with reference to the Irish." The word may be found also in Melchior Emmanuel Nunez de Taboada's "Diccionario Espanol Francés," published in Paris in 1845: "Gringos, -ga, Adj., (figure et familiar.) Grec, hebreu. On le dit d'une chose unintelligible." Translation: "Gringos, -ga—(figuratively and colloquially.) Greek, Hebrew. It is said of a thing that is not intelligible."

THE JESTER.

A Real Diplomat.

Lady of the house—What do you want? Weary Walter—I am de official representative of de Woman's Household Kitchen Culinary Cuisine League and I'm making a coast-to-coast trip testing the favorite recipe of de most prominent lady in each town.—Judge.

Ancients Insured Their Crops.

The rural Indians of Peru still believe in "paying the Incas," for fear that their crops will fail if the ancient observances are neglected. Burnt offerings of drugs and aromatic plants are still made and small images are buried in the fields for the benefit of the crops and the herds. Such are the stone carvings, called mollos or piedras de Chacaranas, that are still sold in the native market of La Paz, Bolivia.—National Geographic Magazine.

Sound Versus Sense.

While her mother was entertaining a caller, little Edna came in from school. During the talk the child told how the teacher was giving them each day a motto to remember.

"And what was the motto today, dear?" asked the caller.

"Susie Adam forgets Susie Adam," quoted Edna confidently.

Both ladies were much mystified over this singular motto, but they finally arrived at the conclusion that what the child meant was "Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm."—Boston Transcript.

That Settled It.

"She—You remind me so much of my brother."

"He—Indeed! In what way?"

"She—Well, Harry seems awfully fond of me, yet he never offers to kiss me. After that it was quite unnecessary for her to ring in any of her relatives."—Boston Transcript.

Well Qualified.

"Are you good at figures?" asked the business man.

"I ought to be," replied the woman who had applied for a position. "I used to be wardrobe mistress for a burlesque troupe."—Judge.

THE TWO "CLASSES."

To the Editor of The Tribune:

It is good to see "capital" and "labor" getting their legs under the same table to talk over their differences.

But it is regrettable that the terms "capital" and "labor" should be so used in any personal sense, when all we really mean is "people" in both cases.

When we set a group of people apart from the common life and bid them be "labor," and another group with the instruction to be "capital," we have the anomaly of two inevitably opposed interests trying to work together in the service of the whole people, such service being a mere incident to each group, neither labor nor capital regarding such service or product as a patriotic contribution to the common weal.

"We collectively, have agreed to make capital the master, and have eagerly placed its yoke upon our own necks that we might be employed as its servants. That is the fact, substantially."

And certain of the keener wits among us, perceiving the honors and immunities that would follow upon their success, have accepted the freely proffered contract, so that we have a capitalist class, and a working class; in subdued conflict always, and in open warfare frequently.

And the whole people lose; not only by the absence of any sense of national service on the part of both capital and labor, but also by the wastage of effort and the cross-purposes inevitable to a great agglomeration of unrelated enterprises.

But organized labor has no evident ambition to be anything but merchantable labor, so that capital very naturally resents any dictation from the said merchantable. While always identified with labor exclusively, it does seem to me that, in the present controversy, capital has the logic of the situation "well in hand."

VALUE OF PLAYS.

"Potash and Perlmutter," dramatized by Charles Klein from the stories by Montague Glass, was appraised at $20,000 in the transfer tax appraisal filed in the surrogate's court. The dramatist was one of the victims of the Lusitania disaster.

"The Music Master," one of the most famous of Mr. Klein's plays, was appraised as of no value to the estate. Under an agreement between David Belasco and the author, Klein was to receive 5 per cent of weekly gross box office receipts up to $5000 and 1 per cent thereafter. A supplementary agreement gave full control to Belasco.

"Maggie Pepper," one of Rose Stahl's later vehicles, was valued at $3000. "The Guilty Man" was said by the appraiser to be so similar to "Common Clay" as to have no monetary value. "The Money Makers" was appraised at $500 and "The Ne'er Do Well," dramatized from the novel by Rex Beach, $100. "Paid in Full" (interest) and "The Lion and the Mouse" were both valued at $500. "Cousin Lucy," written for Julian Eltinge, and "Wall Street Gets Potash and Perlmutter," contracted to be written for A. H. Woods, were both set down as being without value.

"The Third Degree" had been produced in stock all over the country, it was appraised at only $300.

Other valuations are: "The Gamblers," $1000; "Classmates," $500; "Daughters of Men," $300; "Battle of the Giants," "The Cypher Code," "The Next of Kin," $1500 for the three; "The District Attorney," $500, and "Daddy Reigraff," $500.

6 CARS OF DYNAMITE GUARDED

Delayed Shipment Is Temporarily Held in Oakland

Chief of Police Orders Company to Remove Explosive

Six carloads of high explosive have been under armed guard at Twentieth and Wood streets for the past forty-eight hours. Orders were issued by Chief of Police W. J. Petersen last night for the removal of the dynamite from within the boundaries of the city and today the shipment had disappeared.

"There was enough high explosive down there to blow up the entire city," said Petersen. "It constituted a grave menace to this community, and I ordered its removal as soon as I learned it was on the sliding down at Twentieth and Wood streets."

The dynamite was sent here from Pinole by the Hercules company to be transhipped for a foreign market. The company declined to make known the name of the consignee, merely explaining to Chief Petersen that the explosive was for foreign shipment.

The dynamite was shipped to Oakland Sunday morning. The vessel on which it was to have been sent out had left port, and it was decided to keep the explosive in Oakland until the next boat arrived. A guard was established around the cars to prevent anyone with tampering with the dynamite. This guard did not satisfy Petersen, and he ordered the removal of the dangerous freight.

"The presence of so much explosive, aside from the actual danger to the community," said Petersen, "was

"We Strike," Say Milkmen Superior Judge Is Nonplussed However, Cows Still Milked

MARTINEZ, July 25.—What would you do if you were a judge of the superior court and were served with an ultimatum by a union of which you had never heard? Would you capitulate or call for a conference?

When Judge A. B. McKenzie sat down at his breakfast table this morning he found the following document neatly folded beside his plate:

"Milk Boys' Union No. 1 of Martinez, Cal.

"M. B. Honegger, president.

"We, the members of the Milk Boys' Union No. 1, demand wages.

"We shall give you until Friday morning to decide.

"Our cows—Pansy, Winifred, Trixie and Daisy—agree that we treat them fine, give them plenty to eat and never fail to milk them.

"If these things are not complied with, we leave the cows unmilked in their stall Friday morning.

"These things demand: 1. Recognition of our union. 2. Wages. 3. Recognition of our sign.

(Signed) "L. B. H.," "M. B. McK."

Judge McKenzie is puzzled. In view of the fact that the secretary of the union is his own son, 12 years of age, he feels that he is disqualified through prejudice to give the matter an unbiased examination. Also he is inclined to allow parental authority to step in and put an arbitrary stop to all negotiations.

B. S. Honegger, father of the president of the union, also received the notice at his breakfast. Not being of a judicial temperament, he wasted no time in consulting authorities and searching for precedents; he promptly interviewed the president. No statement has been given out by either side as to what occurred at the conference.

Pageant Expert Is Guest at Luncheon

Bessie Abbott Howland, pageant expert at the University of California, was the speaker today at the Advertising Bureau luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce. She told of the pageants planned at the University and of the work in detail. She made several suggestions for the "Try Oakland First" week celebration.

The Advertising Bureau will be actively behind the "Try Oakland First" week and the big industrial show at the auditorium that is to feature the occasion. The general publicity work of the organization will be directed on the celebration from now until it is held next month, and committees from the advertising bureau will co-operate with the general staff of the celebration, under the chairmanship of John W. Phillips, head of the Manufacturers' Bureau.

Police and Sheriff Seeking for Slayer

Search continued today by deputy sheriffs and the police for clues to the identity of the person or persons who last Saturday ran down and killed aged John Shoemaker, an inmate of the county infirmary as he was walking back to the institution along the foothill boulevard late at night. Several clues are being followed and it was stated today that there are good prospects of apprehending the guilty parties.

Uhl Faces Trial on Charge of Girl's Death

Adolph Uhl, wealthy merchant who is charged with manslaughter as the result of having run down and killed Miss Bessie J. Trabucco.

LOVED ONES OF FRIEND'S VICTIM SAFE

Big-hearted Public Aids Wife and Children of Lawlor

Food and Home Provided and Money Fund Started

Dazed by the suddenness of the catastrophe which had snatched her husband from life while he was watching the preparedness parade in San Francisco last Saturday, Mrs. George Lawlor, widow of a Alameda, struggled yesterday with the revolt that bade her question the eternal justice of Providence and rail at its inscrutable edicts. Today she realizes that there is still kindness and affection in the world; that all is not hatred and discord. More contributions are needed to properly relieve the needs of the stricken family and contributions will therefore still be received.

When the bomb explosion took without warning her husband and the father of her two children, Mrs. Lawlor was left absolutely without money and had no prospect of securing wherewithal to buy food for herself and children. She could not even make arrangements for the burial of her husband's body, for she was destitute.

But no sooner had the story of her piteous plight appeared in the TRIBUNE than friends and neighbors came quickly to her relief. From many a home in Alameda and Oakland gifts of food, clothing and money were sent to the home at 3008 Van Buren avenue. Visitors came to speak kindly words of sympathy and to do what they could to alleviate the gloom of grief and the oppression of sudden poverty. No records were made of the many generous donations that came so rapidly in response to the call of distress.

A fund has been started for the family and the following contributions have been made:

I. L. Borden, $100.
A Friend, 100.
The directors of the Alameda Savings Bank have offered a flat, in which the stricken family may live until they again are able to get a foothold in the world and care for themselves, the directors to pay the rent.

Funeral services for George G. Lawlor were held this afternoon in Gray's chapel, San Francisco. The widow and her baby boy, William, and 7-year-old daughter, Katherine, were present, sustained and comforted in the dark hour by a group of friendly neighbors.

"I cannot thank everybody enough for all the kindnesses that have come to me," said Mrs. Lawlor, in the dark hours of grief, "but I can thank the rays of sunshine. I cannot understand it all yet—the cruelty of Fate that took my husband away and the kindness that comes to try to help me."

The Alameda Chamber of Commerce is to take a hand in securing needed relief for the family of George Lawlor, one of the victims of the bomb explosion. The family is left in straitened circumstances. Several plans for relief have been brought forward and will be put into operation. The Chamber of Commerce will probably undertake the systematic collection of cash funds, leaving the other relief measures for individuals and different organizations to handle. The funeral of Lawlor was held in San Francisco this afternoon.

Italians Capture Long Entrenchment

ROME, July 25.—Italian troops stormed and captured another long Austrian entrenchment near Caserazobio, according to a war office statement today. Between the peaks of Mt. Chiesla and Campogioletto the Italian forces crossed three lines of Austrian war entanglements and succeeded in establishing their lines just below the crest of those heights.

Mt. Cimone, the loftiest peak in the northern Apennines, has been captured by Italian troops. It was officially announced today. Cimone is 7195 feet in height and lies just south of the Austrian border.

Plan Dissolution of Subsidiary Oil Co.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Dissolution of the Union Provident Oil Company of Oleum is expected to follow an application filed here today. The company was incorporated in June, 1905, for the purpose of purchasing stock in the Union Oil Company and has been run as a subsidiary company of the larger concern. Judge A. B. McKenzie has set September 5 as the day for the hearing.

WILL PROBE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Civil Service Board Will Investigate Purchasing Division

Director Boyle Is Only Opponent of Survey Plan

Survey of the purchasing department of the board of education by the civil service experts will be asked following a resolution of the school board. The creation of a store, where school supplies shall be kept, and from which distribution shall be made, was recommended by Business Manager Daniel Pratt at a meeting last night. The board decided that before the change should be made the purchasing department should be surveyed by the civil service experts.

Harry Bridgman, school department purchasing agent, interposed no objection to having his department gone into by the civil service board other than to explain that in the general survey of the department by the civil service board his department had been considered, and the civil service experts had favored the creation of a store for the warehousing and distribution of supplies.

"Why should we call in the civil service board on this?" demanded School Director Henry Boyle. "The civil service agent, A. T. Kalas, is under civil service, and he has been trying to get a store for the city and a decent warehouse for over a year, and has not succeeded because of the civil service board."

PREFERS BRIDGMAN'S WORD. "What does the civil service board know about purchasing or running a school or municipal store for supplies? The members of that board may be good lawyers, but are they good business men? I'm willing to take the advice of our own purchasing agent, Bridgman, as to what is needed. Bridgman is a man we know and have confidence in. Why not take his advice?"

The roll call left Boyle in solitary opposition to the civil service survey of the purchasing department.

The employment of six school ground gardeners held to be unnecessary by the civil service board, but employed by Purchasing Agent Bridgman, is among the matters that will be investigated by the civil service members. Complaints in certain firms that they have not been given a full opportunity to bid for school department business may also be looked into by the board.

COMPROMISE ARGUMENT. A compromise was reached at a meeting of the school board between the advocates of tub baths for schools and the advocates of shower baths. For the past two meetings there has been a controversy as to which should be installed in the Harrison school, tubs or showers.

Mrs. Harriet Hawes contended that more could be done in the way of bringing cleanliness to one unfamiliar with the joys of soap and hot water with good tub baths than with a dozen showers. Mr. E. Cox, acting principal of Fremont high school, and formerly assistant superintendent of schools, explained that pedagogic opinion in the United States favored shower baths, both on the ground of general cleanliness and the economic use of water.

"I think that shower baths are generally desirable," said Frank Wilson, the new superintendent of grounds and buildings, "but in the case of the Harrison school Mrs. Hawes is probably right. The first bath given a child who has not known about baths can be more effective in a tub than under a shower."

"I therefore recommend that there be

'Speeditis,' It Is Like Hay Fever

Disturbing Element in Air Is Cause

LIVERMORE, July 25.—Speeditis is like hay fever and is caused evidently by some disturbing element in the air, the effects of which is to exhilarate motorists and prompt them to drive too fast. Like hay fever, also, speeditis usually evinces itself in the form of an epidemic.

How else can one explain the fact that one week seventy motorists disregard the speed laws while the next week only fifteen fall into the hands of the speed cops? Inquires Deputy District Attorney M. J. Clark, who is prosecuting the speeders, and who is studying the question. He believes weather conditions play a large part in enlarging or diminishing the weekly list of speeders. He finds that moderately warm weather is most conducive to speeding. In hot weather motorists, he claims, don't have the "pep" or inclination to travel fast. Fifteen speeders arrested within the past few days were tried before Judge Fitzgerald of this place and Judge Frowse of Hayward. The number is one of the lowest for the season.

$100,000 DOWNTOWN DEAL MADE

P. G. & E. Takes Over Lot at 17th and Clay

New Building for Corporation May Be Built

Papers have been signed in a $100,000 cash deal, one of the largest realty transactions in years, whereby the Pacific Gas and Electric Company has taken over a lot 100x50 feet, at the southwest corner of Seventeenth and Clay streets. The deal marks another important development in the new retail district being built in this direction. According to Madden & Rittigsten, the brokers handling the deal, the Pacific Gas and Electric Company plans to construct its new offices on this ground, a building to cost in the neighborhood of $300,000, to be devoted to the use of the company. The new building will be in the close neighborhood of the new Reliance Theater and the new Brenner building. The company refuses at this time to make any announcements as to its exact plans, but, according to hints given out by the brokers, it is a fact that the property will not lie idle. Several other deals in this neighborhood are declared to be pending at the present time.

Attorney Appeals to Force Election

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Twice balked in his effort to force the election commission to call an election for the recall of City Attorney Percy V. Long, Attorney Daniel O'Connor today appealed to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandate. His petition is in the nature of an appeal from the second decision of Superior Judge George Crothers who twice threw the case out of court.

The agitation for Long's recall came last year during a controversy between the city and the United Railroads over the use of the lower Market street attacks by the Municipal Railway.

Dispute in Court Over McCormick Will

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Two separate petitions were filed in the Superior Court today by relatives desiring to administer the estate of George J. McCormick, cashier of the Tax Collector's office and it is possible that a contest may be precipitated. John McCormick, a brother, in his applications, says the deceased left no will. Sarah A. Grove, sister, filed a will for probate. By the provisions of this testament the bulk of this estate goes to a second sister Margaret McCormick.

WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. O. E. Haywood Victim of Accident; Skull is Fractured.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Hurled from a buggy in which she was riding with her husband when struck by an automobile driven by George P. Upham, Mrs. O. E. Haywood has a fractured skull and several internal injuries. The accident happened in the Alameda district. Upham is the secretary of the Contra Costa grand jury. His wife and baby were in the front seat with him. In the rear of the car were his 7-year-old daughter, George, Mrs. John Golds of Napa, Murray Golds and W. W. Russell. Mrs. Haywood and her husband were hurled several feet. The latter was bruised. Mrs. Upham, with her baby in her arms, and the occupants of the rear seat were thrown out of the car and landed on the road, with the exception of George.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Judge A. B. McKenzies and E. S. Hoeneger, a wealthy banker, have been served with a strike notice by the Alameda County grand jury.

During the last month Louis B. Hoeneger, aged 12, and his brother, Louis, same age, have been milking their father's cows. Winifred, Trixie and Daisy, without pay.

Yesterday they decided that they should not work for their father and served notice upon him to the effect that unless some agreement was made within the next few days they would go to work for the county.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—O'Brien Brothers, contractors, were awarded contracts to build divisions No. 3 and 4 of the Contra Costa highway. The price for the eastern line of the county to a point three miles north of Byron more than ten miles. The price is $95,703.86. There were 20 bidders.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Frank Seale, charged with the killing of Patrick Conroy, and found guilty by a jury last week, will be sentenced to prison on July 27. He was to have been sentenced by Judge McKenzies, but his attorney made objection for a new trial and it was granted.

MARTINEZ, July 25.—F. L. Ballan, a round the United States hiker, who started from Cleveland, Ohio, on July 4, 1915, with eight other hikers, returned on July 25. He has traveled over 12,000 miles, and has been in the United States for 12 months. He has been in the United States for 12 months.

One died, one was ruled out and five quit. The prize of $12,000 was put up for the fastest and athletic clubs, each club entering a man.

Trying to Reach Home, Defense of Speeder

HAYWARD, July 25.—"Trying to reach home before dark," an excuse advanced by Mrs. Anna B. Gloria, wife of a Sacramento newspaper publisher, to explain why William J. Gloria, exceeding the speed limit is one of many excuses received by Judge Charles F. Frowman from speeders. The Gloria was taken from her home in Santa Cruz to Sacramento and stopped off at San Leandro en route. They believed they could reach home before dark, but in accordance to Mrs. Gloria, a little interview with a speed cop on the road, who told her that the Gloria was not to be taken to court, but to be released. Mrs. Gloria did not appear at today's speeders' court.

Stuart S. Hawley, manager of the Hawley Investment Company of Oakland, who was cited to appear here today to face a charge of speeding, wrote saying he was unable to appear because of a family emergency.

A thirty days' continuance of his case. Deputy Sheriff Joseph Soares asked that the case be continued to August 10.

Two Are Injured in Contra Costa Crash

MARTINEZ, July 25.—Mrs. O. E. Haywood is laid up at her home with possible internal injuries and many bruises, and her husband is nursing many bruises following an accident when their buggy was hit by an automobile occupied by George P. Upham, secretary of the 1916 grand jury, members of his family and several other persons.

The accident occurred in the Alameda district. All the occupants of the machine except Upham and a daughter were thrown out of the machine, but none of them injured. The accident is alleged to have been due to the failure of the Haywards to carry a light on the rear of their vehicle.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

WE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT, TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, and an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take this matter in hand at once. Get out into the fresh air, take a walk, and your health and figure will be improved.

Spends as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get out into the fresh air. Take a walk, and your health and figure will be improved.

Nobel Prize to Prisoner of War

Austrian Doctor Curing Wounded Wins Fame

VIENNA, July 25.—Entering the war as a volunteer surgeon little known outside the circle of specialists of his own class, Dr. Robert Barany of Vienna, after fifteen months of captivity in Russia, has at last returned as an "exchange invalid" to find himself famous as the Nobel prize winner in medicine.

The knowledge which was the basis of his prize-winning book was gained chiefly as surgeon in Przemyel; the book itself was written in captivity. It has brought him 400,000 crowns in money, and it played no small part in securing his release from the Russians.

The dramatic circumstances surrounding his achievement have greatly heightened the effect of his return to his family. Normally he was permitted to leave Russia because he is slightly lame from an affection of one foot, from which he has suffered since a child. Actually, his unexpected distinction, plus the efforts of Prince Karl of Sweden, went far to secure his exchange.

Despite his lameness, Dr. Barany volunteered for service at the outbreak of the war and was detailed as chief surgeon of the surgical department of a hospital in Przemyel. It was while there, as he modestly explains, that he was "so fortunate as to discover a new method for the treatment of head wounds, a discovery that enabled him to cure a vastly greater percentage of cases than before."

For four weeks after the fall of Przemyel the Russian command allowed the Austrian physician to remain. Then in transports of about 100 they were sent to various parts of Russia, many to the front. Dr. Barany, on his return reported almost universally good treatment in captivity, treatment that included a sufficiency of food, shelter, and medical attention, and a pleasant professional relations with Russian commanders and colleagues. Dr. Barany was given fairly ample opportunity to study, practice, and to lecture on his specialty to Russian and captive Austrian physicians.

Man Who Warned Berlin of German Invasion

French Flier, Former German Resident, Member of Honor Legion.

PARIS, July 25.—Second Lieutenant Anselm Marchal, who recently flew over Berlin, warning of German invasion, had prior to the war been employed by German firms and had made frequent trips between Berlin and Cologne, so that he was well acquainted with the country over which he flew.

He was in Germany when the war broke out, but managed to get back to France. Some of his relatives still are in Germany. He is 33 years old. He received the Legion of Honor, December 31, for prowess in the air and devotion to his country.

The proclamation thrown on Berlin is described by French authorities as consisting of an "impassioned statement on the causes of the war and the principal reasons why the entente allies are bound to win," and concluding with these words: "By the aid of the entente allies, innocent women and children and by the methods of warfare Germany has alienated the sympathies of neutrals and the number of her enemies grows daily."

The allies are firmly resolved to go on until the utmost limit. You are fighting for your steel kings, your autocracy, your landgrabbers. We are fighting for the liberty of all against the rule of military empire.

We desire to punish the guilty. We wish to make a reputation of the present carnage impossible, and that object will be attained if in Germany the people understand the right to decide questions of war and peace for themselves.

ASLEEP, DRIVER OF FROCK COAT, HERO

Wakes, Fights With Gun, Rescues Maids.

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—W. H. Stewart, a fruit peddler from Puceto, has a bullet wound in his foot which he is very proud of. He received it early yesterday morning, and it is a reminder of a rescue of two pretty maids in distress. Meanwhile a posse is seeking two highwaymen.

Stewart was returning to Los Angeles with a girl companion early yesterday morning in her automobile. Near the end of the Stephenson avenue car line two masked men stepped into the road and with leveled revolvers commanded Miss Gray to stop. She did. The two young women laughed and joked with the bandits to gain time.

Then along jogged Stewart with his wagon filled with fruit for market. He was asleep on the seat of his wagon and was rudely awakened by his horse shying at Miss Gray's machines.

The woman began to scream for help, and Stewart, rolled from his seat to the bottom of his wagon, reaching for his revolver. The two bandits immediately opened fire on Stewart from the cover of telephone poles. Stewart returned the fire and Miss Gray and her companions ran to safety. During the exchange of shots Stewart was hit in the foot by a bullet.

The two bandits escaped. As the result, the plan to hold on Stewart to send Stewart flowers every day until he gets well. All of which, says Stewart, makes it worth while being a hero.

Frock-Coated Thief Routed

Woman Grapples With Beau Brummel Burglar

PASADENA, July 25.—A fastidious burglar, who works in a frock coat and immaculate white shirt, with a white mask tied over his face, made his appearance in Pasadena today. He was routed by Mrs. Lena Elmes into whose house, at the corner of Railroad avenue and Anna street, he was trying to enter.

Mrs. Elmes came upon him suddenly as she returned home and instantly grappled with him. She fought desperately for several minutes, and then ran to a nearby store for assistance. The burglar made his escape.

Appointed to Put O. K. on Potato Crop

SACRAMENTO, July 24.—W. V. Shear, formerly of the United States Department of Agriculture, was appointed by the State Horticultural Commission as the chief inspector of the potato crop in California. He will be in charge of the potato crop in California.

Before sheep potatoes can be sold as certified under the government seal, they must come up to a certain standard. This can be determined it is necessary for the inspector to go into the field when they are dug. This is to ascertain that the potatoes are of the right variety, and that they are free from disease.

65 Attend Quiet Wedding at Fresno

Napa Couple Trave 225 Miles

In the city of Napa, State of California, Romance bestirred himself one day this week and gave sweet counsel to two throbbing hearts. The counsel was followed.

"Nor was it a common job for Romance. William J. Cunningham, aged 39 years, and Eleanor G. Tallman, aged 41 years, seriously contemplated the state of matrimony. Both, saluted the situation gravely and with much wisdom.

"You want a quiet wedding," whispered Romance.

"We want a quiet wedding," said the girl to her fiancé, following the suggestion.

"Sure," he agreed, listening to the counsel. "Far away from reporters and from the crowd. We will be married quietly in a motor car in the cool summer night."

"Let's go to Fresno," suggested the bride.

It was so ordered. The motor car purred over 225 miles of highway to the home of Judge George E. Church on Echo avenue.

"Quiet wedding?"

The car stopped under the vine-covered pergola. Music was just beginning to issue from a lighted room. It was a piano. Then followed a rain of applause. There were not few, but many people.

And they were married in the automobile, beneath the vine-clad pergola. But there were people—whole droves of them—and laughter and music and a lot of other things not counseled by Romance.

The audience of sixty-five people smiled, the bride was smiling, and the groom, happy, despite the miserable plan, did not mutter sotto voce "I do."

"Yes, sir," he exclaimed to the "throng."

Attempt to Block Charter Election

RICHMOND, July 25.—Contending that the property owners of Richmond and those who are to bear the burden of the extra $5000 or $6000, the expenditure of which will be necessitated by the execution of the plan to hold an election of 15 freeholders in this city August 1 for the purpose of framing a new charter for the city of Richmond, are entitled to information as to the inception of the proposition, and as to the identity of the persons who are in favor of the proposition, the Richmond Taxpayers' Association presented a communication to the city council requesting that the names of the circulators of the petition be revealed, together with their reasons for seeking a new charter.

In answer to the reply of Mayor E. J. Garrard, and other members of the council, that the growing plants are so far for the council to retract, Secretary Boswell of the association said:

"The question was put to me, frequently, from time to time, and I have been unable to answer it. Maybe someone else will be able to do so, but I am bringing up the question. The people who are paying the $5000 or $6000 should know the names of the persons who are circulating the petition."

Councilman Hartnett, suggested that Mayor Garrard should investigate the matter, holding at the same time that it would be impossible to reveal the names of the persons who are circulating the petition.

Mayor Garrard directed the assistant clerk to procure the names of those who are circulating the petition, and to place the names in circulation. It was found that these were Daniel Nozicka, Richmond Stanley, W. R. Pettibone, and others.

"Must go through with the thing now," said Councilman Hartnett, "there is no remedy. It appears that Boswell is not going to answer for himself, and he cannot answer for which he can himself suggest no plan."

Exposition Crowds Increase This Year

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—The second year of the Exposition lifeline, the national Exposition gives promise of being even more successful than was the first, according to official figures given in a bulletin issued by the management. The figure indicated that between the reopening and midnight of July 4 the 1916 attendance was 28,816 persons greater than for the same time in 1915. On July 4, this year, the total number to pass through the turn stiles was 45,283, which is said to be another record.

The total attendance from March 14 to July 5, that year, was 620,105. During the same period in 1916 the total number to visit the grounds was 648,707. During the first four days of July this year 22,835 more persons visited the fair than in the first four days of July, 1915.

Russians Continue to Make Big Gains

PETROGRAD, July 25.—Further advance of General Saharoff's Russian forces was announced today. The Russian commander reported his troops had penetrated enemy entanglements on the river Slobovka.

Some Russian detachments already have reached within about ten miles from the Turkish fortified town of Erzerum, in Armenia, says the Russian official statement given out here today.

YOUNG FREEBOS CONFESSES CRIME

Alameda Youth Sets Blaze to Six Places Just to See Flames.

"I set the places on fire to see the fire apparatus in action."

So declares Louis Giddul of Alameda, 19 years of age, today held in the city prison in San Francisco, and declared to have confessed to starting a series of fires, on both sides of the bay. Several mysteries are cleared by the queer confession.

Ever since he was a child, the youth says, fire has had a fascination for him. He used to play with bonfires, he declared. Later he wanted real fires. The confession was made to Fire Chief Murphy of San Francisco, who is handling the case on hold.

Here are the fires for which the youth admits responsibility, according to the police: Three of the four fires which broke out in the Alameda Hardware Company, of 2318 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, which was working there several months ago.

The fire in the Wilkins dry goods store of 1406 Park street, Alameda, where he next worked after leaving the hardware company.

The $20,000 fire, June 12, in the main building of the Marshall Newell Company, ship chandlers, of 142 Stewart street, where he was last employed.

The $2000 fire, July 6, in the Marshall Newell warehouse, across the street from the main building on Stewart street.

Learning recently that young Giddul was suspected of setting the fires in the Alameda stores in which he was formerly employed, the Marshall Newell Company immediately connected him with the fires in its buildings. After holding a consultation with the youth's father, Louis Giddul Sr., a porter of 2110 Pacific avenue, Alameda, officials of the company took the boy to the office of Fire Chief Murphy, after he had been in the city more than two hours by detectives, he broke down and confessed, the police say. He was booked at the city prison on two charges of arson.

Chico Women Bake Cookies for Soldiers

CHICO, July 25.—A baking day for the benefit of the boys of Company A, N. C. C., is being planned by the members of the Beulah Rebekah Lodge, No. 60, and a large shipment of cookies will be sent to the guardsmen who will be the result.

While the lodge is fostering the plan every woman in Chico will be invited to contribute to the shipment. These contributions will be received at Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday afternoon, July 25, at 3 o'clock. Those who cannot deliver their contributions are invited to bring them to the committee, named below, before the shipment is made. The shipment will be made that afternoon.

The committee is composed of Mrs. J. J. Rooney, Mrs. J. E. Behne, Mrs. J. P. Bennett, Mrs. J. E. Turner, Mrs. P. P. Bullington and Mrs. F. W. Rohenkohl.

Young Keyes Found Dead Near Seabright

SANTA CRUZ, July 25.—The body of Homer F. Keyes, son of H. C. Keyes, manager of the Sacramento Gas Company, was found this afternoon at the site of a gas leak near Seabright, a suburb. He had evidently been killed by a gas leak. A revolver was found by his side, and there was a bullet hole above his right ear.

The body had been there two days. It is believed Keyes was despondent following severe illness. He was 30 years old, unmarried, and was a member of a prominent Sacramento family. Keyes was wealthy.

Chased in Canyon by Mountain Lions

LUMPKIN, July 25.—Recently Robert Jackson was going from Cascade to the Barney Rehl mine. When he got to the south branch he saw standing in front of him a big mountain lion which showed signs of being around for some time, and saw another one behind him, so he went sideways up the Nigger Run Point, the lions following, howling and screaming. He was not hurt, but he had to make a detour of several miles. When he reached camp he was totally exhausted. He says after this he will carry a gun.

SUSPECT HELD FOLLOWING SHOT

Railroad Cook Victim of Mysterious Accident, Denies Any Assault.

Police inspectors are today investigating the circumstances of a shooting which occurred at 1729 Seventh street during the night, when Ernest Turner, a railroad cook, was wounded in the arm. Henry Green, who was in the house at the time and who denied that a shooting had taken place, was taken into custody by Inspector Wood and Officer Buckley when a revolver, with one chamber containing a discharged shell, was found in the man's pocket.

Green denied that there had been any shots fired, and acted in such a strange manner that a search of his clothing was undertaken by the police, looking for evidence. The revolver had four loaded chambers, and one in which an exploded shell was found. Green will be held for further investigation.

The explanation given the police by Turner, the wounded man, is that he was accidentally shot by his wife, who had handled the revolver in a careless manner. The man's wound is not dangerous, but the police will investigate thoroughly.

Girls Thrown From Buggy, Slightly Hurt

While driving in a buggy at Thirty-fifth avenue and Suter street, Miss Lillian Arnold, 3228 Suter street, and a friend, Annie Schmidt, were thrown from the vehicle when their horse ran away, Miss Arnold suffering from bruises about the face and severe shock. The horse became frightened, and, when running wildly down the street, caused the buggy to sway dangerously from side to side until it overturned, throwing the two young women to the street. Both refused hospital treatment and were taken home.

Father Reached Home, Alright; Now Asleep

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Mrs. Amy J. Patterson of 69 Devisadero street, waited all night at home for her husband to return and he did not appear. Finally, this morning, armed with a revolver, she took up her stand at Devisadero street and Dubois avenue, and when Patrolmen Whelan and Burns approached she informed them that she was going to "give it to him when he comes."

PERFECT BASSOON REED IS SOUGHT THROUGHOUT STATE

CHARLES F. SEMON.

Pantages Comedian Is Here on Strange Mission

After traveling to Berlin and Paris, studying under noted masters of music, and returning to America to achieve fame, not as a musician, but as a comedian, Charles F. Semon, famed in vaudeville as "The Narrow Feller," is in Oakland, looking for the perfect bassoon reed.

He has looked at the woods of every country and every clime, hunting for the one particular wood that will make the queer instrument he plays possible to ever orchestrate.

"The bassoon," he declares, "takes a certain kind of reed that is almost impossible to find any more, and science is looking for a wooden substitute. I have tried several hundred varieties of wood and have almost solved the problem. It may be that California will produce the material I need."

Semon has consulted with local nurserymen and is conducting experiments in the carpenter shop of the Pantages theater, making reeds out of Oakland-grown woods. Semon is one of the star features of a notable bill at the Pantages this week. An accomplished musician, he turns his musical ability to comedy and has appeared all over the world as "the narrow feller." Other notable acts on the Pantages bill this week are "The Petticoat Minstrels," Thelma's circus and the remarkable motion pictures showing the bomb explosion at the preparedness parade. By some chance the motion picture operator happened to be on the scene and procured a filmed story of the tragedy. The picture also shows the parade, being the official film of the big affair. "The Iron Claw" and "The Secret of the Submarine" are also being shown.

AGED WANDERER.
Leaving a note behind in which he said that he was going to shift for himself in the future, Richard Roderick, 73 years old, of 1819 Thirty-eighth avenue, disappeared from home this morning, and the police have been asked to aid in a search for him. Roderick left the house at 8 o'clock. The disappearance was reported by T. C. Swalley, also of the Thirty-eighth-avenue address.

Zion Society Calls Memorial Meeting

A memorial meeting for Theodor Herzl will be held at the synagogue of the Congregation Beth Jacob, Ninth and Castro, Thursday, July 27, at 8 p. m. Theodor Herzl was the founder of modern political Zionism. In 1896 he published his book "Der Judenstaat" (The Jewish State), and in 1897 he called the first Zionist congress at Basel. The speaker of the evening will be Dr. Abelson Epstein, Frederick Dubovsky, president of the Oakland Zion Society, will preside.

Auto Drivers Are Arrested by Squad

Further arrests of vehicle act violators have been made by traffic bureau police. Fred Holdener and Joseph B. Smith, teamsters, being booked at the city hall on separate charges. Holdener was arrested at East Fourteenth street and Fifteenth avenue by Officer McCormack for a violation of section 13 of the vehicle act, relative to the lack of lights on his wagon. Smith was taken by Corporal

Smith and Officer Manning at Fourteenth and Broadway for not having a number on his motor wheel. This is a violation of section 11 of the vehicle act. Both men secured liberty on $10 bail.
